Continuing the conversation

This week as we continue our study of the book of James, Pastor CJ will be talking about how we really don't have any control over our lives, but do you know who does? God! We shouldn't assume we know what is going to happen but we should ask God to guide our steps!

This packet is best suited for our older kids: elementary aged readers and writers

God has a plan for your life! You can pray and ask God to guide your plans so that you are doing what HE wants instead of what YOU want. Following God's plan is like a maze: if you pray and do what God wants you to do, you will get closer to Him!

It is important to make plans. But it is MORE important to include what God wants those plans to be. Maybe you make a plan for your day or you know there is something you do each week. In the box below, write out your plan, but start it with 'If the Lord wills' or 'God willing'

I include God when I make plans!

Memory verse:

James 4:7

Look up the verse, write it down, and memorize it this week.

What does it mean?

To boast means to brag or to talk about yourself or something in a way that makes other people feel like you are trying to show off or be better than them. God tells us not to boast, but to be humble - we aren't any better than anyone else!

When we listen to God's plan by praying to Him, we get closer to Him, just like a maze!
