continuing the conversation

Pastor John asked us to imagine saying “good enough is never good enough” as we think of how we serve God. Think of how grateful you are for who God is and His outpouring of love. What is one way that we can respond even better than we have before?

During the time when Jesus walked on Earth, people walked along dirt roads and wore sandals. The dust and dirt would get inside their sandals, making them very dirty. It was common for people to wash their feet, or have their feet washed by servants, when they entered someone's home. Answer these questions about Jesus' feet being washed and anointed.

Who washed Jesus' feet? _____
