One way we can make our faith work is by being missionaries right where we are. We don't have to go to a faraway land or have special skills to be missionaries right here at home. We DO need to be mindful of others around us and what they need. The Holy Spirit can turn us into every day missionaries!

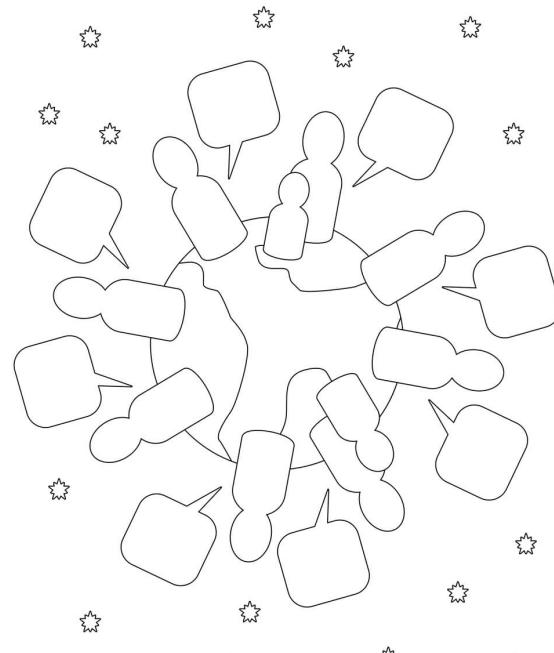

This packet is best suited for our older kids: elementary aged readers and writers

How can you be mindful of others. God calls us to use our faith to help others. Think about using your five senses - how can you tell if someone around you might need God? Maybe they just need help? How can you show that you are mindful of others in order to be a missionary right here? Write about it below!

Memory verse:
Psalm 22:27

Look up the verse, write it down, and memorize it this week.

What does it mean?

Being mindful means that you are paying attention to what is going on around you. You use your five senses and think about what you are hearing, feeling and noticing about yourself and other people around you. God wants us to be mindful of others.

If we are mindful of others, we can teach them about God. God wants us to love Him and love others. We can show our love to others lots of ways! Connect the dots below and think about how your heart can think of others!

d • Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. • n e • Love your neighbor as yourself.
