

Polish American Club of Miami,

I am a highly experienced sale professional with an outstanding track record in sales and new business development and a successful entrepreneur with several startups.

1980: Co-founder of The Pop Network the first coast to coast music program delivered via Satellite. Negotiated successfully for Four Satellite transponders on Westar and GTE Satellite System, this at the time was equivalent to 25% of the entire Satellite system for lease to the marketplace.

1986: Sales Manager at WBAB Radio the #1 Rock station on Long Island.

1991: National Account Manager at The Business to Business Yellow Pages. Clients were Fortune 1000 advertisers.

2003: Senior Account Manager at The Blue Book of Building and Construction, represented the leading Commercial Contractors, Architects, Construction and Real Estate Managers, Interior Designers in New York.

2014: Sales Trainer for Long Distance International, British Telecom, Infinite Conferencing.

Nominated for the prestigious Genesis Awards held at The Beverly Hilton Hotel, Honored with a New York State Legislative Resolution for Making Significant Advances Against Animal Cruelty and getting legislation passed in New York to ban Canned Hunting.

Sincerely,

John Richard Turski