Thank you for your interest in becoming a Crafter at The Olympia Farmers Market! In this document you will find more information regarding the application process and attendance requirements for Craft Vendors.

Definition: Crafters are craft persons, artists and/or makers who design and produce the items they offer for sale at The Olympia Farmers Market. The majority of tools and equipment used by the Crafter in production must require skill and personal handling or guidance by the Crafter.

All Crafters must be successfully juried by the Craft Jury and approved by the Board of Directors. The Craft Jury process happens one time per year in January. Applications will be made available by December 1 and must be received by office staff no later than December 31.

On the Craft Jury Day, applicants will set up a representative display of items as if selling at the Market on a typical market day. The Craft Liaison and staff will convene a jury of 3 to 5 jurors from outside of the Market who possess familiarity with the Market as well as knowledge, working experience or background in handcrafts and/or the arts. Upon approval of the Board of Directors, new Craft applicants will enter the market as Crafters in the Guest Vendor program and may begin selling after a successful site inspection and payment of an annual $60.00 fee.

The Olympia Farmers Market operates year-round with three different seasons:

January-March (Winter Market), Every Saturday

April-October (High Season Market), Thursday-Sunday

November-December (Holiday Market), Saturdays and Sundays

Attendance Requirements for Guest Vendors:

April-October (High Season)

A - Sell all four (4) days.

B - Sell Thursday and be allowed to sell on Sunday.

C - Sell Friday and be allowed to sell on Sunday.

D - Sell Thursday and Friday and be allowed to sell Saturday and/or Sunday.

E - Sell Thursday and Friday only.

F - Sell Thursday only.

G - Sell Friday only.

Guest Vendors may participate in the Holiday Market (November and December), Holiday Shoppers Delight (December 22, 23, 24) and Winter Market (January through March) as stall space allows.
