

The Notre Dame Drama Club
is proud to present

SAVE US!

Written by Daniel Murphy '13

Performed on Thursday, December 1st at 7:30pm in the Assumption Church Parish Hall

Welcome to Doylestown, PA, an all-American small town where people work hard, take care of each other, and spend their free time listening to news, music, and the shows broadcast through the airwaves and into their radios. The year is 1938, and the night is dark and stormy. Something... out of the ordinary is about to happen to the patrons of Helen's Diner, all thanks to an ordinary radio...

One of the characters mentioned by name in the War of the Worlds radio broadcast is Carl Phillips, an intrepid radio reporter who meets an untimely end. This character is in no way connected to Mr. Carl Philipp, our Assistant Principal. We love you, Carl!*

Now that you've found salvation tonight, we hope you will be able to join us for the Drama Club's production of

Les Miserables

School Edition

at the Sacred Heart University Edgerton Center for the Performing Arts!

The show will be next year on Friday,
May 5th at 8pm, and on Saturday, May 6th at 1:30pm and 8pm.

We look forward to seeing you there!
