About Six Million Steps for Kids

In 2019, Reverend Peter Munson will begin a nine month, 3,300-mile walk across the United States from Charleston, SC to San Francisco to raise money for charities that are providing a bright future for children. His goal is to speak along the way, foster relationships and raise $6 million ($1 per step) for children across the globe.

About Peter Munson

Peter Munson is an avid hiker, preacher, and writer. The rector of St. Ambrose Episcopal Church in Boulder since 2001, Peter is taking a leap of faith and leaving this position to pursue his dream to walk across the United States and raise money for children in need. Peter has backpacked the 500-mile Colorado Trail and climbed 47 of the 14,000-foot peaks in Colorado. His wife Julia and two adult children are active supporters of the 6 Million Steps campaign.
