

Calling all AUTHORS!

It's that time of year again to get excited for our Young Authors Program! We have had great participation with this program in the past and this year we are hoping for even more!

What is Young Authors?

A book writing contest for students in grades K-5.

What can you win?

Every participating author will be invited to a Young Authors Party at school where they will read their books to other students, eat a tasty snack, and have a dance party! Winners in grades 3-5 will be invited to the city-wide Young Authors Conference at Wayne High School on April 13rd.

Who chooses the winners?

Books will be assessed by a group of teachers based on the 6+1 Writing Traits.

Where can I find more information?

All the necessary documents are posted on the school website.

When are the books due?

All books need to be completed and submitted to the school office no later than Monday, March 11, 2019.

Late arrival books are welcome; however, they will not be considered in the judging and will not receive any awards.

The goal for the Young Author's Program is to inspire students to write a book and to enrich their writing skills. We are confident this event will be a fun and educational experience for the students.
