

Alameda County Breastfeeding Coalition

Join us on Zoom for our quarterly meetings, Wednesday 9 - 11 AM
2024 Meeting Dates

February 7: California Breastfeeding Summit highlights; Hospital Support

May 1: More on Mentorship (Meet ups and more!)

August 7 World Breastfeeding Week & National Breastfeeding Month

November 6 Showcase: Preparing for Birth and Early Breastfeeding Strategies

Contact our co-chairs for meeting links, to get our newsletter, or for more information:

Jeanne Kettles, MA, IBCLC

510-393-9632

jeanne.kettles@acgov.org

Edna Prieto, MD, IBCLC

510-332-5355

prieto.edna@gmail.com

Alameda County Breastfeeding Coalition is a growing network of health care providers, lactation care workers, hospitals, child care providers, parents, public health programs, and many more! We provide opportunities to learn, network, grow community and create change.

Mission The mission of the Alameda County Breastfeeding Coalition is to collaborate as a community to promote, protect, and support breastfeeding for all families.

Values We embrace the diversity of our community, and uphold equity, inclusion, and shared leadership.

Visit ACBreastfeeds.org for local resources and more!

ACBreastfeeds@acgov.org

