

CalFresh

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

The CalFresh program provides monthly assistance for no and low income individuals and families.

Qualified CalFresh recipients can purchase nutritious food for themselves and their family from any grocery store or farmers' markets that accept EBT cards and online from Amazon or Walmart.

CalFresh eligibility is determined based on household income and owning a home or car does not disqualify you from the program

To apply, submit recertification if already a recipient, or for more information about the CalFresh program please contact us at the:

alameda family services

Family Resource Center

1903 Third Street, Alameda, CA 94501

Phone: 510-612-7807

Email: jmorales@alamedafs.org, yrenteria@alamedafs.org, jjaregui@alamedafs.org

CalFresh benefits will not count against you when submitting an application for permanent residency or citizenship to the United States