

Leadership Change

The Board of Directors announces that after 10 years of exemplary service, Executive Director Tamara Sandberg will be leaving Feeding Kentucky to take on a new opportunity with Save the Children. The Board would like to publicly thank Tamara for her selfless and passionate efforts to help end hunger for families in Kentucky and to realize our vision of a "Hunger Free Kentucky!"

An immediate search for Tamara's successor has been launched and interested parties can go to www.feedingky.org to learn more about the Executive Director's position and the work of Feeding Kentucky.

