

LEARN LOTS ABOUT THE ELKS!

Pay a VISIT to the ELKS WEBSITE at ELKS.ORG!

Did you know? Many Elks don't realize the wealth of information available to them at Elks.org, the BPO Elks website. Anyone may pay a visit to learn more about the order and all the charitable activities we do. As an Elk, you may refer friends to go up online and read about the BPOE. Chances are, they will like what they read and see – and may want to join us as members!

A PORTION OF ELKS.ORG IS RESERVED FOR MEMBERS-ONLY. Access is granted to active members in good standing through online registration. It's very easy to set up your account here: <https://www.elks.org/secure/members/tos.cfm?register>

On this page, the Terms & Conditions of registering and using Elks.org is clearly laid out. Please read this important information carefully before you set up your profile. As is customary when setting up an online account, you will be asked to identify yourself, create a private password for your own exclusive use, and agree to keep the information found here confidential and all communications cordial.

WHAT CAN I LEARN ABOUT AT ELKS.ORG?

There are many great articles! Under the tab WHO WE ARE you will find – “Our Mission,” “Our History,” “Our Lodges,” (a national directory of Lodges where you are welcome to visit and make new friends). The next tab to the right showcases the many PROGRAMS open to participants including: “Scholarships,” “Hoop Shoot,” “Veterans Services,” which our lodge currently participates. There are also some programs here which we could develop if volunteers from our lodge are interested including: “Drug Awareness,” “Junior Golf,” “Dictionary Project” that promotes literacy, and “Americanism.”

Did you know that being an Elk has special benefits? Check out the BENEFITS section offering you various discounts on TRAVEL, INSURANCE, and MORE!
