

Your Privacy is Important to Us

By using this website, you accept and agree to these Terms and Conditions of Use. The Sisters of St. Joseph of Baden reserve the right to change, modify, add, or remove portions of these terms and conditions at its discretion at any time. Please check these Terms and Conditions of Use periodically for changes. Your continued use of this website following the posting of changes to the Terms and Conditions of Use will mean that you accept the changes.

Our website may collect information passively, using cookies. A cookie is a small text file that writes to your hard drive. The cookie file contains a user ID and the name of the website, as well as other technical information. A user ID has no personally identifiable information attached to it. A cookie is only a text file and cannot read data off your hard disk or read cookie files created by other sites. Our website uses cookies to enhance your experience, and to permit many of the functions of the website to operate properly. For example, we may use cookies to keep track of the page that you last viewed and to track any errors that might occur on our website.

Our registration forms may require users to give us contact information that may include name, email address, street address, interests, and similar information. For those who send a note or prayer request to our Sisters, we also store the content of the messages so they can be shared as the person submitting them requests, respecting all preferences for anonymity. All of this information is kept strictly confidential.

We do not disclose other personal information, such as email addresses. We also do not store sensitive information from our website visitors, such as credit card or Social Security numbers. The Sisters of St. Joseph of Baden will not share, sell, or disclose your information to third parties in any form, for any purpose, at any time, without your consent, except when the request is initiated by law enforcement authorities or ordered by a court, or when we believe it is necessary to assert or protect our legal or intellectual property rights.
