

BE INSPIRED

f UAB Center for AIDS Research

@uabcfar

uabcfar@uab.edu

A WORLD LEADER IN HIV-AIDS RESEARCH AND PATIENT CARE

76% of new HIV/AIDS cases were male.*

72% of newly diagnosed HIV/AIDS cases were African Americans.*

Estimated 15,000 people in Alabama are living with HIV.*

51% of new cases identified MSM as mode of transmission.*

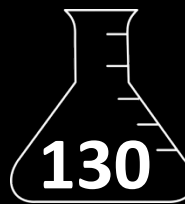

* From ADPH 2015 Annual Report

UAB CFAR is a prestigious & a well-established center.

$ 40 Million active research funding to HIV investigators at UAB

Number of HIV-focused studies supported by CFAR in one year

ONE OF THE SEVEN ORIGINAL CFARS ESTABLISHED IN 1988

OUTCOMES RESEARCH PREVENTION CLINICAL CARE TRANSLATIONAL THERAPEUTICS PSYCHOSOCIAL & COMMUNITY COMORBIDITIES

HIV+ patient samples available for research

BIRMINGHAM: A FAST TRACK CITY

Committed to have 90% diagnosed, 90% on treatment, & 90% virally suppressed by 2020 and ending AIDS by 2030.

FIVE CFAR CORES

- Administrative
- Behavioral & Community Sciences
- Clinical with Biostats & Analysis
- Developmental
- Basic & Translational Sciences

Providing HIV+ data, patient reported outcomes, & specimens to investigators for research from 8 sites in the US.

LEARN MORE ONLINE:

WWW.UAB.EDU/CFAR

Understanding how HIV impacts women's lives. Includes a cohort of HIV+ and HIV- women in the US.