

RESTAURANT AND SMALL BUSINESS RELIEF EFFORT

MESSNER REEVES LLP

Messner Reeves is proud to announce our Restaurant and Small Business Relief Effort. In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, many restaurants and small businesses are forgoing legal help for fear of accruing expenses they won't be able to pay. In an effort to give back to the restaurant and small business communities in their darkest hour, Messner Reeves is offering restaurants and small businesses up to four (4) hours of legal services relating to the pandemic at no charge. We know that restaurants and other small businesses are being devastated by this crisis, and we know we can help.

Areas of assistance may include:

- Lease Review
- CARES Act/SBA Relief (PPP, EIDL Loan Applications, Forgiveness Related Issues)
- Labor & Employment Questions
- FFCRA Paid Sick and Family/Medical Leaves
- Contract/Vendor Issues
- Landlord/Tenant Disputes
- Guidance relating to policies and procedures for reopening and ongoing compliance with health and requirements, including employee and customer health questions
- Crisis Planning and Management

Our team is available and ready to assist you during this time. We will respond to your call or email as quickly as possible, but please allow time for this communication as we work through the requests as quickly as we can. For more information please contact us:
