

Congratulations to Jennifer Fisher Golden: 2025 Fairness and Equal Opportunity Award Winner! 🏆

We are thrilled to announce that Jennifer Fisher Golden, Director and Senior Counsel at Boeing, has been honored with the 2025 Fairness and Equal Opportunity Award for her outstanding leadership and commitment to equal opportunity, belonging, and inclusion in the legal field.

As a key executive at Boeing, Jennifer provides strategic counsel on groundbreaking technologies and supports innovative programs across aerospace, including sustainability, artificial intelligence, and autonomous flight. Her leadership extends beyond the legal department—and is a champion for underrepresented communities through her involvement with various boards and organizations.

Jennifer's contributions have earned numerous accolades, including the ALM Recorder Law.com's California Legal Award, the National Bar Association's Outstanding Corporate Counsel Award, and recognition as one of Savoy Magazine's Most Influential Black Lawyers in 2022. She's also been recognized for her exceptional service to the community and her unwavering commitment to advancing diversity in the legal profession.

We are incredibly proud to celebrate Jennifer's inspiring work and dedication to fostering a more inclusive and equitable legal landscape.
