

Hi Mitzi,

We are proud to announce the 2021 Comcast Pitch Deck Competition! This event is an early-stage pitch competition bringing together university student entrepreneurs from all over New Mexico for chance to win approximately $20,000 in cash prizes for promising business models.

If you are a student interested in participating, you can learn more and apply HERE.

For UNM Faculty, staff, and business community, we ask that you please forward and share this with any currently enrolled New Mexico university student(s). This is a great opportunity and we appreciate your support in making this a successful event!

Finally, anyone can attend the live final rounds via Zoom that will be held on April 15. Please register at: <https://comcastpitch21.eventbrite.com>.

2021 Comcast Pitch Deck Competition

The Comcast Pitch Deck Competition is an experiential learning opportunity for would-be student entrepreneurs who are contemplating, starting, or operating an early stage venture, and who are looking to improve their pitching skills, with the potential to earn seed funding for their business model.
