WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS?

- 1 Serve between 300-450* hours while helping to meet the immediate food needs for thousands of New Mexicans
- 2 Learn skills in multiple areas from warehouse functions, teamwork, and disaster response
- 3 Receive a modest living stipend paid biweekly to help cover basic needs
- 4 Members will also receive an Eli Segal Education Award of approximately $1300 - $1600*

*number dependent on position type

AND WHAT WILL YOU DO?

Rapidly mobilize to respond to increased food need due to the economic effect of the pandemic. Support Roadrunner Food Bank emergency response by leading volunteers in warehouse projects, coordinating COVID 19 drive thru Mobile Food Pantries and expanding food bank services to address food gaps.

ABOUT ROADRUNNER FOOD BANK

Roadrunner Food Bank is a member of Feeding America. It is the largest food bank in New Mexico. The food bank rescues food from food industry partners, gardeners, farmers and many other sources so we can help feed our hungry neighbors. Learn more at www.rrfb.org.
