“Armed in America: Police and Guns” Online Q&A Discussion

The videotaped killing of George Floyd has sparked ongoing protests and demonstrations against police abuses, systemic racism, and the use of guns and military equipment. The turmoil has engendered competing arguments, from demands that the police “dominate the battlespace” to calls to “defund the police.” Passions are high, but how can we decipher complex information and perspectives to develop sound policies? What does this conversation look like?

Perceptions: Exploring Gun Violence will examine these issues in an Online Film Forum on Saturday July 25th at 1 pm. The Reverend Delonte Gholston, Senior Pastor of Peace Fellowship Church and leader of Peace Walks DC will moderate the forum and offer opening remarks. The Reverend Gayle Fisher-Stewart, former D.C. Police Officer and Interim Rector of St. Luke’s Episcopal Church and Brian K. Jordan, former Assistant Chief of the DC Metro Police will be our guest speakers. After their comments, Reverend Gholston will facilitate a Q&A discussion with the audience. The forum will build on the 2016 PBS Town Hall “Armed in America: Police and Guns.”
