

HUHS BAND METALS DRIVE

Located at Hahn's Ace Hardware in Hartford

June 2-3, 2018

A&W Iron & Metal
(262) 335-CANS

9:00—2:00

YES - ITEMS ACCEPTED

- Aluminum cans, scrap aluminum, appliances (no Freon), batteries (vehicle only), brass, bronze, carbide, cast iron, copper, EDM wire, insulated wire, lead, metal, nickel, radiators, sheet iron, silver, stainless steel, steel, tanks (open and dry) tin cans, tin, zinc
- Junk vehicles (cars, trucks, buses—no tires, gas tanks or batteries)
- Lawn mowers, tillers, cycles, snowmobiles, etc.
- Farm machinery

NO - ITEMS NOT ALLOWED

~~Aerosol cans, ballasts, barrels/drums (accepted if cut in half), batteries, cable (over 2' long), capacitors, closed containers of any kind, combustibles, copy machines, computer monitors/keyboards, Freon, fuel cans/tanks, hazardous waste, lead, mercury, microwaves, nonmetallic material (dirt, concrete, rocks, wood, glass, plastic, rags, trash), oil, oil filters, paint cans with paint inside, pressure cylinders, propane tanks, radioactive material (smoke alarms, hospital scrap, x-ray machines), tires, transformers, TVs~~

*Grab some lunch at our brat fry!

The Hartford High Band Boosters would like to thank A&W Iron & Metal, Inc. in Kewaskum and Hahn's Ace Hardware for their dedication to our HUHS band students with our 2nd annual metals drive. A&W is donating all proceeds to the HHBB. We encourage everyone to consider A&W for your metal recycling needs.