Our Mission

To educate, elevate, and collaborate with young professionals by providing a network where individuals can come together to support their career aspirations and the community. The goal of Scottsdale Rising Young Professionals (SRYP) is to build a link between this demographic and the business and community leaders of Scottsdale.

About SRYP

Scottsdale Rising Young Professionals is a program of the Scottsdale Chamber of Commerce designed to engage young professionals ages 23-39. SRYP holds monthly events with formats alternating between exclusive business tours/influential speakers, community service, mentorship, and social networking.
