CORNERSTONE BUILDING FOUNDATION
CELEBRATING EXCELLENCE IN THE CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY

12th Annual Jerry Wyatt Community Service Award

In 2010, southern Arizona's construction industry lost one of its best known members, Jerry Wyatt. To honor him, the Foundation developed the Jerry Wyatt Community Service Award. This award, given to Jerry in 2010 posthumously, has become an annual program for the Foundation. The award is given to an outstanding person who best emulates Jerry's efforts to improve the Southern Arizona commercial construction industry and the Tucson community. Past winners are: Jerry Wyatt, Angie Ziegler, John Nyman, Tom Kittle, David Iaconis, Shirley Dail, Nelson Brown, Fred Knapp, Phil Swaim, Toni Carroll and Ian McDowell. The winner will be honored at the Cornerstone Awards gala - TBA.

I nominate the following individual for the Jerry Wyatt Community Service Award: _____

Individual's Company: _____

Individual's Company Position/Title: _____

Business Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Does this person volunteer and/or contribute to the community? ____
Please explain: _____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Does this person volunteer and/or contribute to the construction industry? ____
Please explain: _____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Is this person active in organizations? ____
Please explain: _____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Please explain any other reason why this person is deserving of the award.

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Nominated by: _____ Email:_____

Please return to Cornerstone Building Foundation c/o Arizona Builders Alliance • 1661 N. Swan, Suite 144 • Tucson, AZ 85712 or email to dcarlson@azbuilders.org or fax to 327-1686 no later than Friday, January 8, 2021.