What's coming down the business pipeline in Tucson? Find out as Amber Smith shares the latest developments and how that will benefit your business.

Amber considers herself a Texazonan as she is a Texas girl who became a Wildcat and never left. Raising three boys with her fire captain husband, Amber never slows down. Involved in politics since serving on Student Council in high school, and for Senator McCain after college, her passion has always been about leaving the world a better place than she found it. Wanting to create systemic change and improve the community remains an active goal that she strives to hit daily—personally and professionally.
