Ministering to our Youth: Continuing our Parish Journey Post Pandemic and Beyond

Dear Friends,

I will be spending this Saturday evening with our young people, on their retreat at Occidental Retreat Center in rural Sonoma County. I will join them there for Reconciliation and Mass, then set them up for an evening of Eucharistic adoration and prayer. I always look forward to and treasure this time away, to get to know our young people better!

As we all emerge from the pandemic, our dedicated, Faith Formation Team continues trying myriad options to reconnect and re-engage with our parish young people. We are truly delighted that nearly 50 Confirmation candidates are traveling on this faith journey in 2023. Our 50 candidates will be joined by another 30 candidates from St. Agnes in Concord, with whom we have a close connection in our deanery of nearby parishes. We often do joint sessions here at CTK, including Sunday Night Masses.

Investing in our youth is critical in growing our Body of Christ. Teaching young people in our Church how to grow in their relationship with the Lord prepares them to serve Christ in all they do. One of the highlights of our Youth Ministry is our vibrant, Sunday evening Teen Mass, well attended by our youth. Currently the Sunday 4pm Mass is one of the best attended Masses at CTK, even exceeding pre-pandemic times. The Mass is “youth-led” with Confirmation candidates involved as Ushers, Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, Lectors and an amazing Teen band with multiple instruments and voices. This Youth-led Mass is the central focus of our Youth Ministry because it integrates the youth community with the rest of the parish community. Before the final blessing, our candidates are invited to the front for a special blessing by the celebrant, the prayers of the congregation, and sent forth in a solemn way for their sessions which follow. The entire community joins in that important show of support, and the sending forth.

Soon, our Junior High Youth Group will travel to the Abbey of New Clairvaux in Vina, CA. to observe and understand the role of monastic life. Our High School Youth Group is amidst preparations to offer a Lenten, off-site retreat at St. Stephen.

While we know there is no single path to engage our youth more fully in our church, our enthusiastic Youth Minister, Mike Aliscad continues his amazing ministry with our teens. Under his direction, 30 young people decorated our church and campus for Christmas, cleaned the surrounding areas, and arranged seating for the outdoor Christmas Mass. Together, they set up Christmas trees and the Manger Scene both in the church and outdoors. After Christmas, they returned to help with further cleanup and the big job of returning the meadow to its use as school playground. We are grateful for their service.

Our teenagers today lead very busy, highly scheduled lives between school, extracurricular activities, and part-time jobs. Finding time for additional activities is always a challenge! Performing community service offers many benefits for young people before, during, and even after their high school years. The benefits of volunteering can have a holistic effect on students' lives—professionally, educationally, spiritually, and personally.

In 2023, our Youth Ministry is leveraging partnerships with different organizations and parishioners to offer a wide variety of programs that we pray our youth, and their families will find valuable, meaningful, and lead them to realizing God's plan for them. We've started “Service With Enthusiasm And Teamwork” (SWEAT), a service ministry partnering with the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano and the St. Anthony Foundation in San Francisco's Tenderloin District. Our year-round partnership offers service opportunities at both locations monthly, year-round.

In partnership with American Red Cross, which now rents a small area on our campus, we are offering age-appropriate disaster preparedness courses. Our age breakdowns are Grades K-2, 3-5, 6-8, and high school. In tandem with the younger grades, we will be offering a “Be Red Cross Ready” course simultaneously for their parents.

Third, we are partnering with parishioners that have specific skill sets to offer financial literacy (offered by a member of our finance committee) and summer employment and interview tips (by a parishioner in the HR field). These offerings will be ready in the spring in time for teen summer employment.

Again, while we know there's no single path to engagement and spiritual growth with our youth, we continue our enthusiasm, dedication, and prayer toward an ever more vibrant faith community. If you have ideas to add to the mix, please share them with me, Deacon John Ashmore, or our Youth Minister, Mike Aliscad.

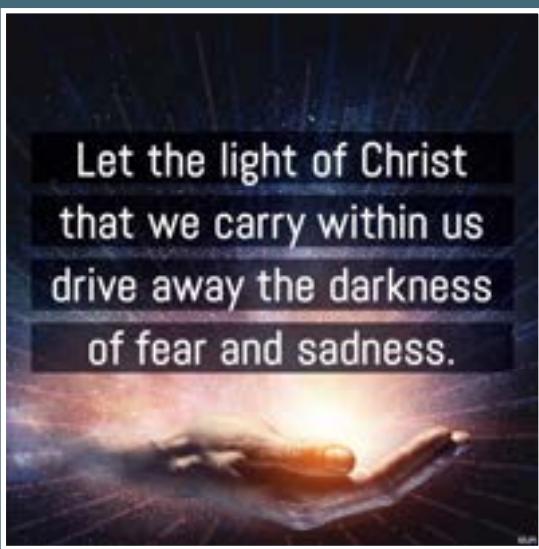

Please pray for their growth in the Lord!

Today, February 5th, we remember the 4 year death anniversary of Fr. Brian Joyce.
An excerpt from one of his 4 minute homilies on November 4, 2001:

But have you noticed we Catholics still pray for the dead – why is that – I don't think it's really to get our loved ones an early pardon from purgatory or to help them escape from a divine "lock up."

- Praying for the dead is a Catholic way of saying that their life goes on;

- Praying for the dead witnesses to a communion and solidarity that we continue to gently hold on to one another even after death by faith and by prayer;

- Praying for the dead is both a human and Christian way of saying "we do not forget," "we will not forget;"

- And, finally if our day to day experience of life is any indication, whether before or after death, there is constant change, growth, ongoing dynamic blossoming – so we pray that our loved ones may continue to grow and to advance in bliss and in joy until one day, with their rough edges gone and our rough edges made smooth, we will all meet again.

Liturgical Life

Jesus said to his disciples: "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden."

- Mt 5:13a, 14

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

The prophet Isaiah spoke of God's desire for us to not only feed the hungry and take care of the afflicted but also to rid ourselves of malicious and accusatory speech. Which of these directives might you be able to do this week?

Second Reading

Paul teaches the Corinthians to place their faith in the power of God more so than in human wisdom. What could be some good ways to make sure this becomes a regular spiritual exercise?

Gospel Reading

Jesus calls his followers to be salt of the earth and light of the world. In other words, Jesus is calling his followers to have a positive influence on the world. In what ways can believers today do good in the world?
