Metropolis of Contrasts:

This full-day tour will focus on Berlin's different aspects:

The historical Berlin

includes the Brandenburg Gate, the Reichstag, the boulevard Unter den Linden, the famous Gendarmenmarkt as well as Charlottenburg Palace, the largest and most beautiful Baroque palace in Berlin.

The Cultural Berlin

includes the city's three opera houses, two concert halls, numerous theaters and museums as well as the unique Museum Island with five important museum-buildings and the Kultur-Forum, where one of the world's most important collections of European paintings from the 13th till the 19th century is shown.

The Political Berlin

includes the government area around the Reichstag with the new Office of the Federal Chancellor and the Paul Lobe Building as well as the Embassy Quarter around Pariser Platz and Tiergarten.

The Divided Berlin

Checkpoint Charlie, the former border crossing between East and West Berlin, reminds us of the long period which Berlin was a divided city.

The New Berlin

includes Potsdamer Platz - one of the most popular attractions with its mix of restaurants, stores, theaters, cinemas, and business areas, which was predominantly designed by Sony and Daimler-Chrysler during the past 10 years.

The Young Berlin

Features exciting night life around the Hackescher Markt, located in Berlin Mitte, the concentrated trendy scene from Oranienburger Straße and its side streets to the courtyard ensemble at Hackesche Höfe. This area is also known as the former Jewish Quarter the Centrum Judaicum/New Synagogue.

The Green Berlin

Located between the Eastern and Western centers is the Tiergarten a large park with an area of 200 hectares.

A city for shopping

Finally, the city is famous for its shopping district around the Kurfürstendamm with different designer stores and the most famous department store - Kaufhaus des Westens-.
