TO LIVE AND TO LOVE IN CHRIST
TO HEAR THE GOSPEL AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Dear Friends,

This coming Sunday, we will be celebrating our CYO (Catholic Youth Organization) Ministry at our 9:00am Mass – children, coaches, and the parents. On behalf of our wonderful community, I want to thank Leo Lopoz, CYO Basketball Athletic Director and Phil Williamson CYO Cross Country and Track Coach and their leadership team for taking care of the physical, behavioral, and spiritual needs of our children through sports and athletics.

CYO sponsors a variety of sports in our community such as girls' and boys' basketball, girls' volleyball, girls' and boys' track and field, girls' and boys' cross country and much more. They enable the gifted to excel, the less gifted to participate and improve. CYO inspires young people to know God, love God, and serve God through Athletics.

The heart of CYO and the key to its success is found in the volunteers who freely give of their time, energy, resources, and expertise. It is the right of everyone associated with CYO to expect volunteers and CYO staff to model the values and ideals of our Catholic faith. I am so grateful to all the volunteers that support our awesome program. All CYO athletic programs contribute to faith-building efforts for young people. Pope Francis said, "Sports in the community can be a great missionary tool, where the church is close to every person to help them become better and to meet Jesus Christ."

We celebrated a Mass of Remembrance this last Sunday, reading over 100 names of our beloved dead who died in the past year. On November 2nd, there was a special mass at St. Stephen. Through symbols, music, and comforting words, we tried to bring peace to many hearts. At St. Stephen community, we have a table with pictures of the faithful departed in the back of the church – a reminder to pray for them during this month. I want to thank Sr. Dominic and her team at CTK and Chris Lang and her team at St. Stephen for leading our church in prayer for the dead, an important act of mercy.

It is in the month of November when nature seems barren of life in the northern hemisphere that our church calls us to have a special time of prayer for the dead. Everyone grieves differently and at their own pace. Whatever led to their death, we may feel we are separated from them now. Our parish community has an amazing Grief Ministry that can assist you during this difficult time. I would invite you to consider joining this ministry.

Our Christ the King- St. Stephen Grief Ministry collaborates with Queen of Heaven Cemetery. We meet here on the CTK campus and at the cemetery chapel to offer the opportunity of a support group to the grieving. A support group helps those who grieve to realize that they are not alone in their loss and pain. When we share our grief by interacting with others who are also grieving, we join hands and hearts with those experiencing many of the same emotions and spiritual challenges of grief. Together, the group slowly makes their way through the journey of grief toward a life of renewed hope.

U.S. Bishops' Religious Liberty Chairman Cardinal Timothy Dolan Speaks Out Against Religious Hatred

Since the Hamas attacks earlier this month, and in the wake of boldly proclaimed rhetoric and the increase of actions of religious hatred in the United States, Cardinal Timothy M. Dolan of New York, chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Religious Liberty issued a sharp rebuke and called for peace.

"In recent days here in America, where for hundreds of years many have sought refuge from religious persecution, we have seen outbreaks of religious hatred that shock the conscience. It is especially disheartening to learn that the man accused of killing a six-year-old Muslim boy in Chicago reportedly identifies as Catholic. Nothing could be more antithetical to our Church's teachings than this man's alleged crime. And as countless voices celebrate the brutal terrorist attacks of October 7, our Jewish brothers and sisters reasonably fear for their lives.

"In the face of such base hatred, we must affirm certain fundamental truths. Every human life is of equally incalculable worth. Hating your neighbors is a grave sin against God, who created us all in his image and likeness. Violence only begets more violence, not justice.

"May those whose hearts have been gripped by hatred repent, and may people of goodwill stand courageously for peace."

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Resplendent and unfading is wisdom,
and she is readily perceived by those who love her,
and found by those who seek her. (Wis 6:12)

Psalm:

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God. (Ps 63)

Second Reading:

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose,
so too will God, through Jesus,
bring with him those who have fallen asleep.
(1 Thes 4:14)

Gospel:

"Therefore, stay awake,
for you know neither the day nor the hour." (Mt 25:13)
