

Mass of Remembrance
Christ The King Parish
November 7, 2021

Entrance: Be Not Afraid (Fr. Bob Dufford, SJ)

*Beyond the moon and stars, as deep as night,
so great our hunger, Lord, to see your light.
The sparrow finds her home beneath your wing.
So may we come to rest where angels sing.*

*Our eyes have longed to see your loving face,
to live within your courts for all our days.*

*Beyond the moon and stars, as deep as night,
so great our hunger, Lord, to see your light.
The sparrow finds her home beneath your wing.
So may we come to rest where angels sing.*

First Reading: Wisdom 3:1-9

A reading from the Book of Wisdom.

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them.
They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead;

and their passing away was thought an affliction
and their going forth from us, utter destruction.

But they are in peace.

For if before men, indeed, they be punished,
yet is their hope full of immortality;
chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed,
because God tried them and found them worthy of himself.

As gold in the furnace, he proved them,
and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself.

In the time of their visitation they shall shine,
and shall dart about as sparks through stubble;
they shall judge nations and rule over peoples,
and the Lord shall be their King forever.

Those who trust in him shall understand truth,
and the faithful shall abide with him in love:
because grace and mercy are with his holy ones, and his care is with his elect.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

SHEPHERD ME, O GOD

Psalm 23, adapt. M.H.

Marty Haugen

The musical notation consists of two staves of music. The top staff is in 4/4 time, featuring a treble clef and a key signature of B-flat major (two flats). The bottom staff is in 2/4 time, featuring a treble clef and a key signature of B-flat major. The lyrics are integrated into the music, with the first line 'Shep-herd me, O God, be - yond my wants, be -' on the top staff and the second line 'yond my fears, from death in-to life.' on the bottom staff. The music includes various note values such as eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests.

Second Reading: Romans 5:5-11

A reading from the Letter to the Romans.

Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. We know that our old self was crucified with him, so that our sinful body might be done away with, that we might no longer be in slavery to sin. For a dead person has been absolved from sin. If then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel: John 6:37-40

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John. Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to the crowds: “Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
