Prelude: As Christ Is For Us (Janèt Sullivan Whitaker)

Entrance: Alleluia! Love Is Alive (Angrisano/Hart/Manibusan)

*People of God, see the morning is new;
rise from your sleeping and run to the tomb.*

*Come and see! Come and see! He is alive!
A grave that is empty, a promise fulfilled.
God who was with us is here with us still.*

He is here! He is here! He is alive!

*Alleluia! Love is alive;
conquered the grave and defeated the night.*

Alleluia! Love is alive!

The Son has arisen for all.

Your people sing alleluia!

Glory To God: Mass of St. Ann (Ed Bolduc)

*Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father.*

*Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.*

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

*Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will. Amen.*

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 14:21-27

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

After Paul and Barnabas had proclaimed the good news to that city and made a considerable number of disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch. They strengthened the spirits of the disciples and exhorted them to persevere in the faith, saying, “It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God.” They appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, commended them to the Lord in whom they had put their faith. Then they traveled through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. After proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia. From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now accomplished. And when they arrived, they called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 145 (Tony Alonso)

*“I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.
I will praise your name, my king and my God.”*

Second Reading: Revelation 21:1-5

A reading from the Book of Revelation.

Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Behold, God’s dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away.”

The One who sat on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.”

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel: John 13:31-35

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

When Judas had left them, Jesus said, “Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and God will glorify him at once. My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
