PALM SUNDAY REFLECTIONS

TODAY'S LITURGY IS DRAMATIC in predictable and unpredictable ways. We follow the same pattern year after year, making our palm procession while singing songs of praise, bearing news of Christ's saving grace to our town through this commemoration of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. As the liturgy continues, the mood shifts dramatically; like the crowd in Jerusalem, we switch from exalting Jesus to condemning him. As we act out the terrible drama of Jesus' abandonment, torture and death, we are cast in a role: We are among those who contribute to his condemnation. Because we are implicated, the drama has the power to impact us differently year by year, for our lives are constantly in transition. None of us is quite the same person as we were last year, while the sufferings and horrors of the world around us bear new faces.

YOU ARE WELCOME to worship with us any Sunday.

Our regular service times are 8:00 and 10:30 AM, during the academic year.

WELCOME

WE ARE GLAD YOU ARE HERE, and we invite you to enter fully into worship today, and to receive Communion or a blessing at the chancel rail. We encourage you to ask questions, explore, and to make yourself known to those around you. Please pick up a welcome bag, newsletter, and any other information about the parish located on the bookshelf in the back of the church. Tell us more about yourself by filling out one of the cards located in each pew. Help us make this a place where God's grace is freely shared by all.

CHILDREN

CHILDREN ARE WELCOME AT ALL SERVICES. There are changing stations in both rest rooms at the Paterson Street entrance; you can get there through the side door of the church. Children's activity bags are available in the back of the church for use during services (please return at the end of the service). There is also a nursery with a video link to the church located near the Parish offices.

FREE PARKING VOUCHERS are available for the Lower Church Street parking deck next to the church grounds. Please see an usher for a voucher and instructions.

INTERCESSIONS

AT EVERY CELEBRATION OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST prayer is offered with intercession for the Universal Church, the nation, the welfare of the world, the concerns of this community, those who suffer and those in any trouble, and the departed. Please feel free to add your own petitions during the prayers, either silently or aloud. If you would like to add a name to the prayer list, you may also fill out the form in the Prayers of the People book in the back of the Church.

HOLY EUCHARIST

THE LITURGY OF THE PALMS & PROCESSION

When the weather permits, please gather outside on the Nicholas Room Patio so that all who are able may process. (Rain or cold will shift us into the Sanctuary.)

Palm branches are distributed to the people before the service and held up during the blessing over the branches.

Processions are mentioned throughout the Bible, from the procession of Joshua and the Israelites around Jericho (Joshua 6) to Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem recalled in today's liturgy. Liturgical processions are in themselves acts of worship. Our procession today is intended to mark the beginning of this, the holiest week of the Christian year, and to recall God's mighty acts of redemption.

When all have gathered the Presider begins the liturgy with these words

Presider Blessed is the one that cometh in the name of the Lord:
People Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.
Presider Let us pray. Assist us mercifully with thy help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby thou hast given us life and immortality; through Christ our Lord.
People Amen.

An account of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem is read from Luke 19:28-40

Deacon A reading from Luke. After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'" So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" They said, "The Lord needs it." Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!" Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, order your disciples to stop." He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out."

Silence is kept for a space

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

BLESSING OVER THE PALMS

The Presider then says the following blessing

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And with thy spirit.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is meet and right so to do.
Presider It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty to praise thee, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which thou hast redeemed us through thy Son Jesus Christ our Savior. On this day he did enter the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way. (Please hold your palm branch high in the air.) Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leadeth to eternal life; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.
People Amen.

THE PROCESSION

Deacon Let us go forth in peace.
People In the name of Christ. Amen.

HYMN "All Glory, Laud, and Honor" VALET WILL ICH DIR GEBEN

BLUE HYMNAL 1982 #154

Please sing verses 1 and 2 during the procession to baptismal font; then the rest of the hymn is sung during the remainder of the procession after the collect at the font is said.

Text: Theodulph of Orleans, d. 820, tr. John Mason Neale, 1851;
Tune: Melchior Teschner, 1613, harm. William H. Monk, 1861

At the baptismal font the procession stops and the following is said

Presider Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord:

People Hosanna in the highest.

Presider Let us pray. Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: Mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and of peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

Please sing verses 3, 4, & 5 of the hymn as the congregation processes into the pews.

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Presider Let us pray. Holy God, we gather on this Palm Sunday and find ourselves in solidarity with the crowds who shouted for salvation.
We know our needs, both individually and collectively.
Our hunger for righteousness and justice compels us to proclaim,
"Hosanna! Save us!" two thousand years later.
As we begin this journey toward the cross, from admiration to despair, we know we are well-nourished for the path ahead.
You have prepared us, fed us with love and truth,
and refreshed our spirits throughout the Lenten season.
Let us carry the spirit of Hosanna in our hearts, ready to serve and love, knowing the journey continues toward resurrection and renewal.
May the bread we break, both physical and spiritual,
remind us of your presence in every step.
Guide us on this path and sustain us for the work ahead.

People Amen.

Please be seated

THE LESSONS

FIRST LESSON Isaiah 50:4-9a

Reader A reading from Isaiah: The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens— wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

Silence is kept for a space

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 31:9-16 In te, Domine, speravi

9 Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I am in trouble; *
my eye is consumed with sorrow,
and also my throat and my belly.
10 For my life is wasted with grief,
and my years with sighing; *
my strength fails me because of affliction,
and my bones are consumed.
11 I have become a reproach to all my enemies and even to my neighbors, a dismay to those of my acquaintance; *
when they see me in the street they avoid me.
12 I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind; *
I am as useless as a broken pot.
13 For I have heard the whispering of the crowd;
fear is all around; *
they put their heads together against me;
they plot to take my life.
14 But as for me, I have trusted in you, O Lord. *
I have said, "You are my God.
15 My times are in your hand; *
rescue me from the hand of my enemies,
and from those who persecute me.
16 Make your face to shine upon your servant, *
and in your loving-kindness save me."

SECOND LESSON Philippians 2:5-11

Reader A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians: Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Silence is kept for a space

INVITATION INTO THE PASSION The Reverend Joanna Hollis

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST Luke 23:1-49

Please follow the Passion reading inserts. The customary responses are omitted. Please be seated for the first part of the Passion, then all who are able please stand and kneel where indicated in your Passion insert.

A period of silence follows the reading of the Passion.

THE NICENE CREED

ALL We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven; by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Leader Let us pray for the church and for the world.

The Leader requests the prayers of the People of God for the world, the mission of the Church, and for those individuals who have asked for or need our prayers. If you would like to add a name to the prayer list, please fill out the form in the Prayers of the People book in the back of the Church.

After the last petition, the Presider adds a concluding Collect.

People Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please kneel or stand as you are able. Silence is kept for a space.

ALL Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against thee in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved thee with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in thy will, and walk in thy ways, to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

All who are able please stand

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with thy spirit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE HOLY COMMUNION

OFFERTORY HYMN "Ride on! Ride on in Majesty" Blue Hymnal 1982, #156

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer II, BCP page 340

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up unto the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is meet and right so to do.

Presider It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who for our sins was lifted high upon the cross, that he might draw the whole world to himself; who by his suffering and death became the author of eternal salvation for all who put their trust in him. Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

SANCTUS

People Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts:
Presider Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
People Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High.
Presider Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
People Hosanna in the highest.

All who are able may stand or kneel

Presider All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory. And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord; By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end.

People AMEN.

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

People Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the bread. After a period of silence, all sing

Presider O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

People O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Presider O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

INVITATION

Presider The gifts of God for the People of God.

The congregation may kneel or sit following the Invitation. All are most welcome to receive Communion. If you do not wish to receive communion this morning, you are cordially invited to come forward with your arms crossed to receive a blessing. Gluten-free wafers are available; please speak to the member of the clergy who is serving the bread.

The Bread and Cup are given to the Communicants with these words

Minister The Body of Christ, the bread of heaven.

Recipient Amen.

AFTER COMMUNION

All who are able please stand

Presider Let us pray.

People Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and also are heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

taking faith home

HYMN OF THE WEEK

Bless Now, O God, the Journey

WEEKLY MILESTONES

Take a moment to tell or think about a recent mountain high and/or valley low in your life.

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your home, small group, or use for personal reflections:

- Is it easy or hard for you to forgive someone? Explain.
- If you were alive during Jesus' time, what would you have asked him?

DEVOTIONS

Read: Luke 23:1-49.

The crucifixion of Jesus tells us a lot about ourselves and about our God who defeats human frailty with forgiveness and new beginnings. The crowds praise Jesus' entry into Jerusalem and then within a week say, "Crucify, crucify him" (v. 21). Peter promises to be faithful to Jesus but at a crucial moment denies him three times. The people give false witness about Jesus to make him look bad in front of Pilate. The leaders, the crowd, and the soldiers mock Jesus, but their words bear the truth of who he really is. Two criminals are killed along with Jesus. One ridicules Jesus while the other seeks his tender care. Through Jesus, God is willing to enter our world and participate in vulnerability, injustices, betrayal, suffering, and death. It shows the way of Jesus' cross as the way of true peace, true life, and true hope. It is the very example of God's amazing love.

Discuss: Who do you most identify with in the story of Jesus' crucifixion?

Pray: Merciful God, through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, you endure our lies, our fears, and our sin; we praise you for enduring it all from the cross to bring salvation to us. Amen.

SERVICE

Jesus calls us to serve our neighbor in love. Based on the Daily Bible Readings and theme for this week, how can you help someone who is suffering?

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

Prayer is an important spiritual practice for Christians. During this Lenten season, take time to focus on the prayer Jesus taught us to pray, the Lord's Prayer (Luke 11:2-4). The conclusion to the Lord's Prayer is an added doxology, an expression of praise to God, not found in Luke 11. This Palm Sunday we shout Hosanna as Jesus enters Jerusalem. Take time to reflect on the words of the conclusion of the Lord's Prayer: For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen. Add these words to verses 2a, 2b, 3, 4a and 4b from the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth weeks in Lent by writing them around the outside of the cross drawn on the paper the first week. Take a moment to think or talk about what these words mean to you.

Pray: The Lord's Prayer.
