A grayscale photograph of two students in a science classroom. The student on the left is wearing a lab coat and safety goggles, and is using a long metal rod to stir something in a beaker. The student on the right is also wearing a lab coat and safety goggles, and is looking down at a piece of equipment on the table. There are various science supplies on the table, including a microscope, a beaker, and some papers. The background is slightly blurred, showing other students and classroom equipment.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT OF PUBLIC EDUCATION!
