Santo Niño—Holy Child

In every need let us come to you
with humble trust:
In all our doubts, perplexities, and temptations,
In disappointments, troubles, and sorrows,
When others fail us, when our heart is cast down
by failure, when we are ill,
and our head and hands cannot work,
when we are lonely, when we feel impatient,
and our cross irritates us,
Always, always, in spite of weakness, falls,
and shortcomings of every kind,
Santo Niño, help us!

Prayer to the Holy Child Jesus

In the Philippines, devotion to the infant Christ extends beyond the Christmas season, with the celebration of the Santo Niño, the Holy Child, during the month of January. In the Philippines, devotion to the Santo Niño is more than a traditional devotion – it is deeply rooted in the history and culture of the islands.

The story of the Santo Niño in the Philippines begins on the island of Cebu. Queen Juana of Cebu resisted the efforts of Spanish missionaries to convert her. But when they presented her with a gift of a statue of the Child Jesus, her heart was touched. This image of a vulnerable God — a child and yet a king, strength in weakness — did what all their words could not. Moved to tears by their gift, Juana asked for baptism.

But not all the native peoples accepted the rule and religion of the invaders. In 1521, King Lapu-Lapu of Mactan challenged the invaders in battle, and Ferdinand Magellan was killed. Without his leadership, the Spaniards soon lost their grip on the islands. The native peoples proceeded to destroy all signs of the invaders and their faith, including (it was thought) the image of the Child Jesus that had been given to Queen Juana.

More than 40 years later, the Spaniard Legazpi led a new expedition to the Philippines. They found the town of Cebu nearly destroyed by fire. But amid the ruins, they discovered a wooden box. Inside it lay Queen Juana's statue of the Child Jesus, miraculously intact. Spaniards and natives alike took this as a sign. They built the first Catholic Church in the Philippines on the spot where the image was discovered, and dedicated it to the Santo Niño, the Holy Child. From that time on, the finding of the image has been celebrated in the Philippines with a great annual festival in the month of January, including a solemn liturgy, and dancing and feasting as well.

It was at one of the first such celebrations, in 1567, that the first mixed-race marriage in the Philippines took place, when a niece of the native king married a Greek carpenter, a member of Legazpi's crew. This marriage — which held profound political significance for the islands, and ushered in a new era of friendship between the races — is reenacted each year as part of the Santo Niño celebration in Cebu City. The celebration of the Santo Niño thus becomes an ongoing prayer for tolerance and understanding among peoples.

While the Santo Niño de Cebu — characteristically garbed in red and gold — is the most popular image of the Child Jesus in the Philippines, there are many others, including Santo Niño de Tondo, Santo Niño de Padacan, as well as the Infant of Prague. In fact, about 150 different images of the Child Jesus, each with its own history and associated traditions, are venerated in the Philippines. Though the images are many, there is one Christ, who came among us to bring the light and love of God to people of race, nation, and tongue. May our celebration of the Santo Niño bring us to greater oneness in the Christ, who calls all of us to become as little children, and so enter the kingdom of God.

ST. JAMES IMMIGRANT ASSISTANCE (SJIA) – SERVICES BEYOND OUR OFFICE WALLS SJIA serves lawful permanent residents who need additional support as they take the necessary steps to successfully apply for U.S. citizenship. We work to meet clients where they are, both figuratively and literally. SJIA actively fosters relationships with other local agencies and social services that support immigrant communities. In this way, we are able to connect with and serve vulnerable clients who require additional assistance in applying to become U.S. citizens. Many of our clients face significant health issues and resource challenges that make accessing the citizenship application process very difficult, and for some of our clients, hinders their ability to come to our offices. To meet this need, SJIA works, on a case-by-case basis, to extend our services and go out into the community to meet with clients in need of individualized assistance in accessing and navigating the process of becoming a U.S. citizen. If you or someone you know is interested in becoming a U.S. citizen, we can help. Information, Patrick Suhrbier, psuhrbier@stjames-cathedral.org or Laura Murton, lmurton@stjames-cathedral.org, 206-382-4511.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU Eight years ago, a young woman signed a lease on an apartment with a friend. When she moved out, she did not have her name removed from the lease. This innocent mistake has resulted in $8,000 in debt and garnished wages because of interest accrued when she had no idea there was a problem. She managed to keep up with her current rent until a job change. With legal representation there is hope that some garnished wages will be returned. Those in need of assistance can call the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449 or apply online https://svdpseattle.org/get-help/online-help-request-form/) With your donations, the SVdP ministry was able to help with her rent. Thank you. Information, Blake Steller, 907-244-6683 or blsteller@gmail.com.

Communal Celebration of the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

Saturday, February 8, 2025 | 10:30am
Father Michael G. Ryan, presider

Immaculate Conception Church
820 18th Avenue, Seattle

In observance of the World Day of Prayer for the Sick, we gather as a family of parishes for the communal celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. We will conclude our Mass with a procession to Immaculate Conception's Lourdes Grotto, which has been a place of prayer and hope for generations.

What is the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?
The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church. Like the sacrament of reconciliation (confession), it is a sacrament of healing. Our understanding of this sacrament has changed with time. In the early Church it was seen as a sacrament of healing, but later it came to be known as "Extreme Unction" – literally, "last anointing" – and was not administered until death was imminent. With the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, the Church has returned to the more ancient practice with regard to this sacrament.

Who can receive this sacrament?
Catholics, both children and adults, who are seriously ill, facing surgery, or experiencing the weakness that comes with old age should seek this sacrament. Those with serious, chronic mental or physical illness may also receive the anointing of the sick.

What happens during the Rite of Anointing?
The Rite of Anointing will be celebrated in the context of a special Mass on Saturday, February 8 at 10:30am. After the homily, the Liturgy of Anointing begins. The priest leads a litany in which all pray for the healing and forgiveness of the sick person, as well as for doctors, nurses, and caregivers. Then, in silence, the priest lays his hands on the head of the sick person, an ancient gesture of prayer that is used in connection with many of the sacraments, especially the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Holy Orders.

After the laying on of hands, each sick person is anointed with the Oil of the Sick (pure olive oil, blessed each year by the Archbishop at the Chrism Mass). The sick person is anointed on the forehead and then on the hands, and simple words accompany the anointing: "Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up." A concluding prayer follows, and then the Liturgy of the Eucharist continues as usual.

No RSVP is required.
