

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL
The Epiphany of the Lord
January 3, 2021

ORDER OF CELEBRATION FOR
The Epiphany of the Lord

WELCOME! A few important notes on today's liturgy:

- + Wearing a mask is mandatory whenever you are in the Cathedral. Your mask must cover both your nose and your mouth at all times.
- + The clergy and readers are permitted to remove their masks, but only when they are speaking. They will wear masks at all other times.
- + Always observe social distance of at least six feet between family groups, including during the communion procession and as you leave.
- + Do not move around the Cathedral before or during Mass. Please follow the directions of the ushers as you leave the Cathedral.
- + Congregational singing is not permitted at this time.
- + Thank you! We can all help each other stay safe and comfortable by following these common sense guidelines.

EPIPHANY PROCLAMATION

In keeping with an ancient custom in the Church, the date of Easter and other moveable feasts of the liturgical year are announced in traditional chant.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,

begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
ALL BOW
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

ALL STAND UPRIGHT
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy,
catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

All respond: Lord, hear our prayer.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

SANCTUS sung by the cantor

St. James Mass of Carols

MYSTERY OF FAITH sung by the cantor

AMEN

LORD'S PRAYER

AGNUS DEI sung by the cantor

St. James Mass of Carols

Please kneel following the Lamb of God and remain kneeling until it is time for your row to go forward for Holy Communion.

Distribution of Holy Communion

- + Communion is given only in the hand.
- + Maintain six feet of separation between household groups as you come forward.
- + Wear your mask. Hold your hands out as flat as possible so that the minister can easily put the host on your open palm without touching your hand.
- + After receiving Holy Communion, lower your mask with one hand, put the host in your mouth, and then put your mask back on.
- + Following the procession, please exit by the door nearest you. This may not be the door you came in. Maintain social distance as you leave the Cathedral and follow the directions of the ministers.

COMMUNION

We have seen his star in the East, and have come with gifts to adore the Lord.

Vidimus stellam

chant, Mode IV

Three Kings in great glory of horses and men
In haste come ariding o'er mountain and fen;
For their King is awaiting and lo they would bring
The best of their treasure to give to their King.

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese.

The Epiphany of the Lord

January 3, 2021

ON THE COVER "Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way." The Visit of the Magi. North transept stained glass window, St. James Cathedral, 1917-1918. Charles Connick, artist.

VISIT THE MANGER SCENE "Today is the right day to draw near to the manger, and to say thank you. Let us receive the gift that is Jesus, in order then to become gift like Jesus" (Pope Francis). Because of Covid-19 restrictions, it is not possible to stay after the weekend Masses to visit the manger scene, but we hope you will stop by during the Cathedral's open hours to pay a visit. During the week, there is a place to light candles and write prayer intentions. The Cathedral is open on weekdays from 7:30am until 4:00pm.

WEEKDAY MASSES OPEN TO THE PUBLIC Each day from Monday through Saturday, an 8:00am Mass is celebrated in the Cathedral. All are welcome to attend without prior registration. On Tuesdays, the 8:00am Mass is followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, concluding with rosary at 12 Noon.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU A young man had a steady, fulltime job at a local movie theater until COVID shut down the theaters and he lost his job. He scrambled for work. All he could find was part-time work, not enough to pay his rent. He was blessed to have a friend who pitched in to help pay part of the rent, and SVdP paid the rest. Your financial donations to SVdP at the Cathedral truly help. Thank you for making this dark winter a little brighter for our neighbors in need! If someone you know needs help, please suggest they call the SVdP Helpline, 206-767-6449, 8am to 3pm Monday through Friday, except holidays.

TAKE ANOTHER LOOK AT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

You are invited to an online Cathedral program for Catholics who have been away, and are wanting to take another look at their Church. Be part of a small zoom community, ask questions, and learn about changes in the Church. The program begins Monday, January 11, 6:30-8:00 pm, and runs for six Monday nights. Information: Rosanne Michaels, rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Bothell, St. Mary in Castle Rock and Centralia, and St. Mary Mission in Coupeville.

FIND OUT MORE ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC Are you, a family member, or a friend interested in learning more about the Catholic Church? Come and See! You're invited to a no-strings-attached gathering to ask questions and find out more on Wednesday, January 6, at 7:00pm via Zoom. Information, Kathleen McCabe, kmccabe@stjames-cathedral.org.

FRATELLI TUTTI: ON FRATERNITY AND SOCIAL FRIENDSHIP In October, Pope Francis released Fratelli Tutti, an encyclical which calls us to live out our Christian duty to see the face of Jesus in our neighbors, recognizing everyone we meet as a brother or sister. On Monday, January 11 at 6:30pm, Judy Mayotte, a scholar and Cathedral parishioner, will speak on Fratelli Tutti's call to restore humanity's fraternal bond, that we are all sisters and brothers. The following week, a 4-week small group program will begin, for Cathedral parishioners to read, discuss and pray with this important teaching on human solidarity and friendship. Registration and information, Patrick Barredo, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

FAITH AND RACIAL HEALING Mondays, 6:30pm-9pm starting on January 18, 2021. Through new learning from articles, videos, and resource books, the Faith and Racial Justice small group program from JustFaith Ministries lends new insights to participants' awareness of privilege and racism. By encouraging new spiritual practices and informed action, it cultivates an expanding community of Christians who work to dismantle racism in their respective contexts. This process will challenge your own thinking about racism, its causes, and its impact, while helping you discern practical steps to address it. Information and registration, Patrick Barredo, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

OUTREACH OPPORTUNITIES DURING THE PANDEMIC Catholic Community Services/Catholic Housing Services (CCS/CHS) has asked the Cathedral to provide meals for their day centers and shelters. Unopened store-bought casseroles and unopened sandwich-ingredients (bread, deli meat, vegetables and condiments) are greatly appreciated. In addition, toiletries (toothpaste, toothbrushes, soaps and shampoos, feminine hygiene products), canned ready-to-eat meals (i.e. soup or chili), cup of noodles, easy mac & cheese, K-cup coffee, cocoa and tea, individual servings of chips, crackers, granola bars and cereals have been requested. Deliver food to Cathedral Hall (803 Terry Ave.), Tuesdays, 9am to 11am. Information, Patrick Barredo, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL ON SOCIAL MEDIA Be sure to follow the Cathedral on social media for up-to-date information about ongoing events in the life of the Cathedral! On Instagram: @stjamescathedral. On Facebook and Twitter: @stjamesseattle. Did you know the Cathedral has a podcast? Father Ryan's homilies are available on iTunes. Just search "St. James Cathedral, Seattle" on Apple podcasts. And of course, you can always visit the Cathedral website at www.stjames-cathedral.org for up to date information on Cathedral happenings, or to sign up for our weekly e-bulletin.

Sacrificial Sunday Giving

Thanks to all who have made your pledge for 2021 and a quick reminder to all that this is the time we think about how we will support the Cathedral parish in the coming year.

Your financial support is absolutely essential to make possible not only the celebration of the Church's liturgy, but also our many arts, outreach, and education programs throughout the year.

If you have not yet done so, please drop your pledge card in the mail today, or go online to make your commitment. Thank you so much for your generous response and for all you do to make this parish the wonderful place it is!

www.stjames-cathedral.org

Musical Prayer

FRIDAY, JANUARY 8 AT 6:30PM: MUSICAL PRAYER IN THE CATHEDRAL continues with Cathedral Piper Tyrone Heade playing Scottish Small Pipes, which he describes as a chamber instrument with a warm woodwind timbre. More information on his instrument and a video can be found on Tyrone's website at bagpipe101.com/small-pipes. Join the livestream at vimeo.com/stjamescathedral or facebook.com/stjamesseattle.

VOLUNTEER TUTORS FOR IMMIGRANTS Do you have a few hours each week to help an immigrant learn English or prepare for their citizenship interview? No prior tutoring or teaching experience necessary. All tutoring is currently done remotely. Staff provide ongoing support. To get into the next training, please contact us as soon as possible. Information, Sayuko Setvik, ssetvik@stjames-cathedral.org.

THANK YOU TO SO MANY who have supported this year's virtual Giving Tree and Sock Drive. When we pray the Grace before Meals, we ask God's blessing upon ourselves and the food that comes to us through God's bounty. Through your generous contributions, many men, women and children in our region will receive wonderful gifts from your bounty. Please know how much each of you has been a blessing!

ARE YOU A REGISTERED PARISHIONER AT ST. JAMES? Many who attend St. James regularly and consider the Cathedral their parish have never officially registered. We strongly encourage you to register. Registered parishioners receive important mailings from the Cathedral (including offering envelopes!). You can register online at www.stjames-cathedral.org.

for one another be intense*

SUNDAY GIVING AT ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL 2021

FRATELLI TUTTI

On Fraternity and Social Friendship

"To see the earth as it truly is, small and blue and beautiful in that eternal silence where it floats, is to see ourselves as riders on the earth together, brothers [and sisters] on that bright loveliness in the eternal cold -- brothers [and sisters] who know now they are truly [family]."

– Archibald MacLeish

GO DEEPER AND WIDER WITH POPE FRANCIS' THIRD ENCYCLICAL, FRATELLI TUTTI!

WE ARE ALL SISTERS AND BROTHERS

January 11, 2021, 6:30pm – 7:30pm (ZOOM)

DR. JUDY MAYOTTE, MacArthur grant recipient, humanitarian and Cathedral parishioner, will speak on Fratelli Tutti's call to restore humanity's fraternal bond, that we are all sisters and brothers dwelling together on the Earth, our common home. We are called to hear the cry of the poor, our brothers and sisters. We also are called to hear the cry of the Earth, which sustains us and gives us life. Dr. Mayotte's reading of the Pope's encyclical includes a consideration of what walls we build within ourselves, and what structural walls we (as a people) have constructed. Following her presentation, there will be a period for discussion.

FRATELLI TUTTI STUDY GROUPS Starting the week of January 17

Cathedral parishioners are invited to join a 4-week, small group program on Zoom to read, discuss and pray with Fratelli Tutti, with a particular focus on the importance of human solidarity and friendship. You are welcome to participate in one of these small groups: Tuesdays, 2pm-3.30pm, Wednesdays, 6:30pm-8pm, and Thursdays, 6:30pm-8pm. Two books will be needed: Fratelli Tutti and Bill Huebsch's On Fraternity and Social Friendship: Group Reading Guide to Pope Francis' Fratelli Tutti. Both are available in the Cathedral Bookstore.

To register and to receive information, Patrick Barredo, Director of Social Outreach and Advocacy, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org

Take another look

The program will begin Monday, January 11, and will run for six Monday evenings, from 6:30 - 8:00 pm on Zoom.

This is an opportunity to gather with other Catholics who have been away from active participation in the Church.

These sessions will offer opportunity to experience community, to learn about changes to the Church, ask questions, and perhaps to once again become part of your faith community...

If you have questions, or would like to sign up, contact Rosanne Michaels, rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org, or 206-790-1519.

Grief Support Group

Tuesdays, January 26—March 16, 2021
6:30pm-8:00pm, on ZOOM

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join this 8-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff Nancy Granger and Rosanne Michaels

Information and registration, Rosanne Michaels, 206-790-1519 or rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org

Year OF THE Eucharist

Archdiocese of Seattle

And to be Christ's Body is to carry on the mission of Christ in the world.

When the Church celebrates the Eucharist, it is not the bread and wine alone that are transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ. We must be transformed as well. When we present our gifts of bread and wine, along with any collection, we symbolically place ourselves upon the altar, that we may become (along with the bread and wine) the Body of Christ. When we receive the Body and Blood of Christ, we become what we receive — we are incorporated into Christ's Body. St. Augustine said to his congregation, "So, if you want to understand the body of Christ, listen to the apostle telling the faithful, You, though, are the body of Christ and its members (1 Corinthians 12:27). If it is you that are the Body of Christ and its members, it is the mystery meaning you that has been placed on the Lord's table; what you receive is the mystery that means you."

And to be Christ's Body is to carry on the mission of Christ in the world. This mission at its core is to proclaim the Word of Christ, to celebrate his sacraments, and to extend his love through lives of charity.

Archbishop Paul D. Etienne

The Saints and the Eucharist

How beautiful is the Mass, especially when celebrated in a cathedral filled like ours on Sundays, or even when celebrated simply in village chapels with people full of faith, who know that Christ, the King of Glory, Eternal Priest, is gathering together all that we bring him from the week: sorrows, failures, hopes, plans, joys, sadness, pain! How many things each one of you, brothers and sisters, brings to your Sunday Mass! And the Eternal Priest gathers them in his hands and by means of the human priest who celebrates lifts them up to the Father.

St. Oscar Romero
(1917-1980)

For Reflection

What do I bring to the altar today? What joys or sorrows, what successes or failures, can I offer to God in love and thanksgiving?

Do I have the courage to ask God to transform my life as he transforms the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ?
