maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

The Saintly Six

The Saintly Six are noteworthy Black Catholics on the path to Canonization. Currently, there are no Black saints among the 11 saints associated with the United States. These Six Black Catholic candidates are on the path to becoming the United States' first African American saints. During this Black History Month, the St. James Racial Solidarity Team welcomes you to take time each week to remember, celebrate and reflect on two of the Saintly Six, whose lives of faith in the pursuit of justice and freedom have placed them on the road to sainthood. May these holy women and men inspire us to promote the racial justice needed in our Church, our nation and our world.

Servant of God Sister Thea Bowman (1937-1990) left an indelible mark on her community and on her Church. She lovingly taught young people about the joy of being Christian, she challenged her Church to accept her as "fully Black and fully Catholic," and she embraced her suffering from cancer with a willing spirit. Sister Thea, the granddaughter of enslaved persons, converted to Catholicism and later joined the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration. She was an unapologetically Black woman, a religious sister who deeply loved God and the people to whom she ministered through teaching, preaching, and singing, all while embracing the blessing of her ancestry, the wisdom of the "old folks," and a passion for justice and equality for all God's children.

Venerable Henriette Delille (1813-1862) devoted her life's work untiringly to the religious instruction of the people of New Orleans, principally the slaves. Her love for Jesus Christ showed no boundaries. She became a humble and devout servant of the slaves. Henriette founded the Sisters of the Holy Family, responding to the need of treatment for the enslaved, elderly, and sick, and care and education for the poor. The canonization process for her began in 1988, and in 2010, Pope Benedict XVI declared Henriette to be Venerable.

The canonization process occurs in four steps:
Servant of God, Venerable, Blessed,* and *Saint

Communal Celebration of the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

Saturday, February 8, 2025 | 10:30am
Father Michael G. Ryan, presider

Immaculate Conception Church
820 18th Avenue, Seattle

In observance of the World Day of Prayer for the Sick, we gather as a family of parishes for the communal celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. We will conclude our Mass with a procession to Immaculate Conception's Lourdes Grotto, which has been a place of prayer and hope for generations.

What is the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?
The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church. Like the sacrament of reconciliation (confession), it is a sacrament of healing. Our understanding of this sacrament has changed with time. In the early Church it was seen as a sacrament of healing, but later it came to be known as "Extreme Unction" – literally, "last anointing" – and was not administered until death was imminent. With the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, the Church has returned to the more ancient practice with regard to this sacrament.

Who can receive this sacrament?
Catholics, both children and adults, who are seriously ill, facing surgery, or experiencing the weakness that comes with old age should seek this sacrament. Those with serious, chronic mental or physical illness may also receive the anointing of the sick.

What happens during the Rite of Anointing?
The Rite of Anointing will be celebrated in the context of a special Mass on Saturday, February 8 at 10:30am. After the homily, the Liturgy of Anointing begins. The priest leads a litany in which all pray for the healing and forgiveness of the sick person, as well as for doctors, nurses, and caregivers. Then, in silence, the priest lays his hands on the head of the sick person, an ancient gesture of prayer that is used in connection with many of the sacraments, especially the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Holy Orders.

After the laying on of hands, each sick person is anointed with the Oil of the Sick (pure olive oil, blessed each year by the Archbishop at the Chrism Mass). The sick person is anointed on the forehead and then on the hands, and simple words accompany the anointing: "Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up." A concluding prayer follows, and then the Liturgy of the Eucharist continues as usual.

No RSVP is required.

The Land Is Not Our Own: Seeking Repair Alongside Indigenous Communities will inspire and equip you to stand alongside Native communities in working for justice and repair. This 8-week small group lays a foundation of trust and relationship, so that together participants can acknowledge injustice, honor the interconnectedness of all Creation, and seek healing, repair, and hope alongside Indigenous communities.

The Land Is Not Our Own is an invitation to hope, joy, and healing. Together, the small group will celebrate Indigenous artists and activists, engage in a spiritual reorientation toward honoring our sacred connection with one another and all Creation, and learn concrete ways that individuals, churches, and communities can partner with Native leaders in their work for justice and repair.

GOALS

- Guide participants in "discern[ing] how Christian communities can address the extinction, enslavement, and extraction done in the name of Christ on Indigenous lands."
- Equip communities and congregations to seek justice and repair alongside Indigenous leaders.
- Celebrate the wisdom and traditions of Indigenous authors, artists, and spiritual teachers
- Through spiritual reorientation, inspire daily decision-making that honors participants' sacred relationships with all of Creation.
- Transform a collection of 7-14 individuals into a community of love and support. The members of your community will continue to encourage one another as you seek spiritual transformation and take action for justice after the program has finished.
