DISMISSAL OF THE CATECHUMENS (10:00am)

I sought the Lord
FAITH

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

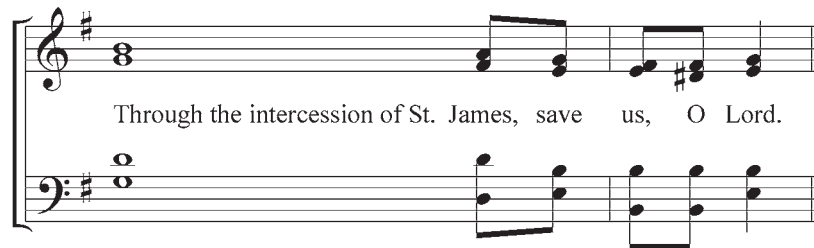

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel following the Lamb of God and remain kneeling until it is time for your row to go forward for Holy Communion.

COMMUNION

Vos qui secuti
chant, Mode I

You, who have been my follower, will sit upon the throne, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

(10:00 & Noon)

Pilgrims' Hymn
Stephen Paulus (1949–2014)

Even before we call on Your name To ask You, O God,
When we seek for the words to glorify You, You hear our prayer;
Unceasing love, O unceasing love, Surpassing all we know.
Glory to the Father, And to the Son, And to the Holy Spirit.
Even with darkness sealing us in, We breathe Your name,
And through all the days that follow so fast, We trust in You;
Endless Your grace, O endless Your grace, Beyond all mortal dream.
Both now and for ever, And unto ages and ages, Amen.

Michael Dennis Browne (b. 1940)

Upon returning to your place after Holy Communion, please kneel or be seated.
Low-gluten hosts are distributed at the credence table near the presider's chair.

The Feast of St. James

AND OUR ANNUAL PARISH PICNIC

Sunday, July 23, 2023
11:30am-3:00pm

Live music, free food, great activities for kids, and a chance to celebrate this wonderful parish community and our pilgrim patron, St. James the Greater! Join the fun after the 10:00am and Noon Masses this weekend. All are welcome!

*St. James!
We come to you in eager pilgrimage.
We come to you today
because we are on a common journey.
Place yourself, patron of pilgrims,
at the head of our pilgrimage.
Teach us, apostle and friend of the Lord,
the WAY which leads to him.
Open us, preacher of the Gospel,
to the TRUTH you learned
from your Master's lips.
Give us, witness of the faith,
the strength always to love the LIFE
Christ gives.
We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.*

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese.

The Feast of St. James July 23, 2023

ON THE COVER Can you drink the cup that I am going to drink? St. James the Greater, artist unknown.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered by the parish community in honor of St. James the Greater, our beloved patron saint.

FLOWERS AT THE STATUE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY in the north transept are offered in memory of Brandon Lee Neuneker.

PARISH PICNIC ON TERRY AVENUE All are invited to the parish picnic on Terry Avenue following the 10:00am and Noon Masses! Our regular Sunday "coffee hour" will resume next Sunday.

CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE CLOSED THIS WEEKEND The Cathedral Bookstore is closed after all Masses this weekend to allow our volunteers to participate in the picnic!

FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP "We need to participate for the common good. Sometimes we hear: a good Catholic is not interested in politics. This is not true: good Catholics immerse themselves in politics by offering the best of themselves so that the leader can govern" (Pope Francis). Washington State's primary election on August 1 includes state judicial offices, as well as a variety of local offices and/or measures (questions, bonds, levies, etc.). For those who are not registered to vote, tomorrow (July 24) is the deadline to register at www.sos.wa.gov.

THE SOLANUS CASEY CENTER Named after Franciscan priest Fr. Solanus Casey, the Center (a joint ministry of Catholic Community Services and St. James Cathedral) is a walk-in referral center that provides services to the unemployed, working poor, people just released from detention, and those living on the streets, shelters, and transitional housing. The Center also offers modest financial assistance as funds allow. In particular, it is one of the few agencies in Seattle that will help pay for ID cards and provide assistance with necessary background paperwork. The Center is open Monday to Friday, 1pm to 4pm. To volunteer, Adriana Henry, Program Manager, 206-223-0907 or AdrianaH@ccsww.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parish of St. James in Vancouver and for St. Joachim Mission on the Lummi Reservation.

CALL FOR AUCTION ITEMS

Our annual dinner and auction benefiting the Cathedral Kitchen is coming up on Monday, August 28 (see flyer in this bulletin). We are now seeking items for our raffle and silent auction. Our wish list includes...

- Restaurant gift certificates
- Gift cards valued at $25 to $50 of any kind—Amazon, Starbucks, Safeway, iTunes, etc.
- Vacation rentals make great auction items!
- Sporting event or theatre tickets
- Bottles of wine for our wine roulette

If you have other ideas of items to donate, we would love to hear about them! All proceeds benefit the Cathedral Kitchen. Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or mlaughterlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

HELPING FAMILIES AND THEIR CHILDREN PrePS (Pregnancy and Parenting Support), an office of Catholic Community Service, invites you to help their Nido Familiar program. Volunteer work includes sorting donations, stocking the baby boutique, stocking diapers and wipes, and tending a community garden. Hours are Monday to Wednesday, 10am to 4:30pm. Information, Rubit Chavez, program manager, 206-584-1270 or RubitC@ccsww.org.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU A single father became his three children's full-time caregiver when he lost his job during the pandemic. Fortunately, the man is back to full time work again. As laid out in a signed payment plan with the building owner, he pays an additional amount to catch up on back rent that accrued during the few months he was not working. When turnover in the building management office resulted in poor tenant communication and publishing rent statements sporadically, this neighbor became uncertain and anxious about his rent balance. Wanting to make sure he retained his apartment, the man called the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449) requesting assistance. Thanks to your help, we provided a portion of his rent to help him catch up. Additionally, we referred him to the NW Justice Project in case an eviction notice appears in the near future. Information, Jo Ann Wiesner, 206-291-4012 or wiesnerjo@gmail.com.

TOILETRY DONATIONS If you are traveling and staying at a hotel, consider bringing the small toiletries back to St. James. There is a donation bin located in the Cathedral Bookstore. Our St. Vincent de Paul conference packages the toiletries and distributes them to those in need. Thank you!

CARE FOR CREATION TIP OF THE WEEK According to King County, about one-third of food produced in the United States ends up in garbage bins. The energy, water and other resources used to produce, transport, and cook food is wasted when we waste food. At today's Parish Picnic, consider what food you put on your plate. Don't take more than you can eat. You can always come back for more.

ST. JAMES IMMIGRANT ASSISTANCE (SJIA) accompanies immigrants on their path to US Citizenship. Carlos (not his real name) was eligible to apply for citizenship, but suffers from severe dementia. His family could not afford a private attorney and was unaware he qualified for SJIA's free naturalization legal services. The family submitted several applications for Carlos on their own, which were denied and cost the family over $1,000 in filing fees despite being eligible for a fee waiver. SJIA worked with Carlos' family to request and review his prior immigration records and applications, identify and clarify discrepancies, obtain an updated medical exception and oath waiver from Carlos' doctor to be exempted from the testing requirements, and submit his application with a fee waiver. Our services minimized any future unnecessary complications, delays, denials, and expenses. If you or someone you know is interested in becoming a US Citizen, we can help. Information, Patrick Suhrbier psuhrbier@stjames-cathedral.org or Laura Murton lmurton@stjames-cathedral.org, 206-382-4511.

JOIN THE CATHEDRAL GARDEN TEAM! The St. James Cathedral Kitchen Garden, which provides fresh produce for the weeknight meals served at Cathedral Hall, welcomes volunteers to help with planting, weeding, maintenance, pruning & harvesting. The garden is located on the corner of Madison & Terry. Information: Peter Burns, pburns@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-264-2082.

ARCHDIOCESE MENTAL HEALTH MINISTRY WELLNESS WEDNESDAYS On the first Wednesday of each month, from 7-8pm, on Zoom, free presentations are offered on different mental health topics. The next session is Wednesday, August 2, when Cole Devlin and Gabriel Hamilton will speak about the Intersection of Faith, Spirituality, and Peer Support. To register for this and future events, archseattle.org/ministries/outreach-ministries/mental-health-ministry/

SEEL INVITES YOU TO A TRANSFORMATIONAL RETREAT IN EVERYDAY LIFE The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) Puget Sound is a 9 month retreat format of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius that goes from September through May. SEEL is accepting applications now for the program starting in late September. Join us on this transforming pilgrim journey! Information, www.seelpugetsound.org.

House of God, Gate of Heaven

4th in a series

July 23, 2023

Our Cathedral is a tangible invitation to prayer and reflection. In this series, we visit different holy places in the Cathedral, and explore how they call us to prayer. This week, we pause before St. James the Greater.

About that time King Herod laid hands upon some members of the church to harm them. He had James, the brother of John, killed by the sword (Acts 12:1-2)

WHICH ST. JAMES?

We hear the name of James twice in the canon of apostles and martyrs: "Peter and Paul, Andrew, James, John, Thomas, James, Philip..." Our St. James is the first of the two, traditionally called "the greater." He and his brother John were fishermen, and were among the first disciples to be called. Jesus, walking along the shore, saw them hard at work in a boat with their father. "He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him." They followed without hesitation, without asking questions and without looking back. Later James and John, with Peter, became the most privileged of all the disciples. They alone were admitted to witness the raising of Jairus' daughter, the glory of the Lord's transfiguration on Tabor, and his agony in the garden.

According to this tradition, James traveled as far as Spain to preach the gospel before returning to Jerusalem to be martyred at the hands of Herod. Two of his companions climbed with the martyr's remains into a rudderless boat which drifted, by the guidance of the Holy Spirit, to Spain, where the apostle was buried. In the ninth century the tomb was rediscovered. From that time onward, people began to pray at the tomb in increasing numbers. In the 13th century, a mighty cathedral was built over the tomb to accommodate the flood of pilgrims.

After a long journey, the pilgrims would catch their first glimpse of the towers of the Cathedral of Santiago from a hilltop that came to be called Mount Joy. On arrival, after visiting the tomb and greeting the image of St. James with a kiss, pilgrims would receive their Compostela, a document certifying that they had completed the pilgrimage, and the coveted scallop shell, the symbol of pilgrimage to Santiago. These emblems of the pilgrim — the staff and the scallop shell — became associated with the Saint himself, who in art is frequently represented as a pilgrim, and almost always with his scallop shell.

WAY OF ST. JAMES

St. James the Greater is represented several times in St. James Cathedral and a brief visit to each of these images is a small pilgrimage in itself — a suitable devotion for the month of July!

Stage 1: Our pilgrimage begins on the front steps of the Cathedral where a statue of St. James crowns the façade of the building. This simple, almost severe image carved out of Indiana limestone shows the saint with a book in his right hand, staff and scrip in his left. On the pedestal is a sword surmounted by a scallop shell.

Stage 2: The next image of St. James is small and easy to overlook. An image of the saint forms one of the four bronze doorstops for the ceremonial bronze doors at the Cathedral's main entrance. Here, James is shown on his knees, fishing nets in hand. He has just heard the call of Jesus, and the nets fall from his fingers as he heeds the voice of the Lord.

Stage 3: Inside the Cathedral, head to your left, toward the north aisle. The first stained glass window on the left is the next stop on our pilgrimage. This window by Charles Connick shows the apostle with a green and blue mantle over his brown pilgrim's robe and sandals. A gourd crowns his staff, and he wears a shell on his pilgrim hat. His red book and vivid red halo remind us of his martyrdom.

Stage 4: The principal image of St. James is found in the northeast corner of the Cathedral, just outside the shrine of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This dramatic and beautiful representation shows the saint as a pilgrim on the way to Compostela. Watching over the people of St. James Cathedral in all their comings and goings, he is a fitting emblem of the pilgrim church.

PRAYER

Almighty Father, by the martyrdom of St. James you blessed the early Church.

May his profession of faith give us courage and his prayers being us strength.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
