EPIPHANY PROCLAMATION

In keeping with an ancient custom in the Church, the dates of Easter and other moveable feasts of the liturgical year are announced in traditional chant.

CREED CHANTED ON ONE TONE

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

St. James Mass of Carols

O may your birth bring joy to the world.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR AND THE GIFTS

Offertory (10:00)

Three Kings

Healey Willan (1880–1968)

“Who knocks tonight so late?”
the weary porter said.
Three kings stood at the gate,
each with a crown on head.

The serving man bowed down,
the Inn was full, he knew.
Said he, “In all this town is no fit place for you.”

A light in the manger lit;
there lay the Mother meek.
This place is fit.
Here is the rest we seek.

Come, come. They loosed their latchet strings, so stood they all unshod “Come in, come in, ye kings, and kiss the feet of God.”

— Laurence Housman (1865–1965)

SANCTUS

St. James Mass of Carols

Cantor or Choir: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

The Epiphany of the Lord January 2, 2022

ON THE COVER We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage. North transept stained glass window, St. James Cathedral. Charles Connick, artist.

BECOMING CATHOLIC How do I become Catholic? What must I do? How do I get started? There will be a Zoom meeting on Wednesday, January 5, 2022, at 7pm to answer these questions and talk about the process of becoming Catholic. Information, John Marquez, 206-654-4640, jmarquez@stjames-cathedral.org.

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT Friday, January 7 is First Friday. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will follow the 8:00am Mass. Because of a funeral, exposition will be for just one hour, 8:30-9:30am.

REST IN PEACE Please pray for the repose of the soul of Mary Totten and Donna Cheshier. The Funeral Mass for Mary Totten will be Friday, January 7 at 10:30am. The Funeral Mass for Donna Cheshier will be Saturday, January 8 at 10:00am. Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

SANTO NINO CELEBRATION On Sunday, January 16 at 12 Noon Mass, we will have our annual celebration of the Santo Niño, the Holy Child. All are invited to bring their own images from home for the blessing.

MESSAGE FROM POPE FRANCIS FOR THE WORLD DAY OF PEACE (JANUARY 1, 2022) The World Day of Peace was first celebrated by Pope Paul VI in 1968 and coincides with the feast of the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God. Popes have used the occasion to send messages to world leaders on issues ranging from human rights, economic development, diplomacy, peace in the Holy Land, and globalization. Pope Francis' message for 2022 emphasizes the importance of intergenerational connections for building a world of lasting and just peace, in particular, the importance of education and dialogue between generations. He writes, "Dialogue entails listening to one another, sharing different views, coming to agreement and walking together . . . Great social challenges and peace processes necessarily call for dialogue between the keepers of memory – the elderly – and those who move history forward – the young." You can find the full message at <https://www.vatican.va/>.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Bothell, St. Mary in Castle Rock and Centralia, and St. Mary Mission in Coupeville.

CATHEDRAL KITCHEN We continue to serve 80-100 take away meals with limited seating in the Cathedral Hall 6 days a week. We are looking for a few volunteers to collect donations from local partner grocery stores, using the new Cathedral Kitchen van. Information, Mick McHugh or Maria Tally, mtally@stjames-cathedral.org.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU A young woman works full time as a receptionist earning slightly above the minimum wage. Her grandparents raised her and when they recently had a special need, she gave them some of her earnings. This left the young woman short of money to pay her rent. Although embarrassed about asking for help, the young woman called the SVdP Helpline requesting assistance (206-767-6449). We told her we were happy to help. With your support we could pay enough toward her rent to give her relief. She ended the call telling us she felt good when we told her that we were happy to help her. Thank you for your support! Information, Jo Ann Wiesner, 206-291-4012 or wiesnerjo@gmail.com.

HEALTHY BODY, HEALTHY MIND, HEALTHY PLANET Save the date! January 20 from 7-8pm via Zoom Are you looking to make a positive change in the new year? If you would like to learn about practical, effective ways to enhance your health and the health of the planet, come join our "Healthy Body, Healthy Mind, Healthy Planet" program. Information, Blake Steller, bsteller@gmail.com.

WELCOME BACK is an invitation to take another look at the Catholic Church for those who, for one reason or another, have been away. If you yourself – or someone you know – is disillusioned, longing for community, or hungry for something more, Welcome Back might be just the right place to safely express these concerns. A new six week series will begin Thursday, January 20. Information, John Simpson, 206-654-4658 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

VOLUNTEER TUTORS FOR IMMIGRANTS Do you have a few hours each week to help an immigrant learn English? No prior tutoring or teaching experience necessary. All tutoring is currently done remotely. Immigrant Assistance staff provide ongoing support. Information, Sayuko Setvik, ssetvik@stjames-cathedral.org.

VOLUNTEER SOMALI INTERPRETER NEEDED Do you speak Somali or know someone who does? Immigrant Assistance is seeking a Somali speaker who can help with communication between staff, tutors, and students. Information, Sayuko Setvik, ssetvik@stjames-cathedral.org.

CARING CALLS MINISTRY Caring Calls is outreach to people who live alone or would like to have more social connections. Volunteer callers offer regular supportive contact and friendly conversation. They are community and spiritually-minded individuals who understand the call of Christ to care for each other. They want to make a difference in someone's life. Perhaps it is yours? If you or someone you know would like to receive regular phone calls from a fellow parishioner, contact Nancy Granger, 206-382-4269 or ngranger@stjames-cathedral.org.

CARE FOR CREATION NEWS

COP 26 THROUGH THE EYES OF THE CHURCH

Two weeks ago, the St. James Care for Creation team sponsored an event to learn more about the COP 26 environmental summit which took place in November in Glasgow, Scotland. If you were not able to join, but would like to watch the recording, contact Patrick Barredo, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

SAVE TIME. SAVE MONEY. SAVE THE PLANET.

Worldwide, about 40 million tons of electronic waste is generated every year. This is the equivalent of throwing away 800 laptops every second—waste that's creating toxic runoff and affecting local wildlife. Organizations like 1 Green Planet (1greenplanet.com) are able to reuse and recycle 99.9% of materials you received. Instead of throwing away old electronics, bring them to an E-Recycler.

TEEN, YOUNG ADULT AND ADULT VOLUNTEERS

NEEDED FOR FAITH FRIENDS MINISTRY The program's goal is to give children and teens ages 7-18 with physical, cognitive and intellectual disabilities access to the parish community, social events, and faith formation. Perhaps the most unique aspect of the Faith Friends program is the Faith Peer program. Faith Peers are teens and young adults who have chosen to live out their discipleship and share some of their personal time in dedication and service to the goals of the program. Adult volunteers are needed for the Adult Leadership team. Training for Faith Mentors, Faith Peers and Adult Leadership is ongoing. Information, faithfriends@stjames-cathedral.org or <https://stjames-faithfriends.weebly.com>.

ADVENT GIVING TREE AND SOCK DRIVE Thank you to all who participated in this year's Advent Giving Tree and the "Warm Hearts and Soles" Advent Sock Drive. Our goal of 2,022 pairs of socks for homeless men was met, and then some! Thank you!

FAITH FRIENDS Do you know a child or teen age 7-18 with physical, cognitive and/or intellectual disabilities? Faith Friends begins in January 2022 and will be a unique blend of our Faith Mentor, Children's Faith Formation program, and an inclusion ministry. Information, faithfriends@stjames-cathedral.org or <https://stjames-faithfriends.weebly.com>.

St. James Cathedral Immigrant Assistance

"Every stranger that knocks at our door is an opportunity to meet Jesus Christ."
Pope Francis

A Reflection on Refugees

I try to follow where Pope Francis goes, as well as what he says. His travels stand out as actions of witness.

In early December Pope Francis traveled to Cyprus and Greece, returning again to the Greek island of Lesbos, where Francis visited in 2016. Lesbos lies close to Turkey and has held a large camp of refugees since the Syrian civil war began ten years ago. Francis visited the refugee camp, asking the world (that means us) not to turn our attention away from the refugees, but help the Greek people serve the refugees and help the refugees find permanent homes all over Europe. Just visiting the refugee camp is an act of witness, bringing visibility to their situation. In Cyprus, an island nation with many more refugees, Francis collaborated with the lay Catholic community of Sant 'Egidio to bring 12 refugees home to Italy. This too was an act of witness – helping real people and pointing to so much more that could be done to resettle people.

Francis is witnessing to what he has said and written for years about caring for refugees, and he is witnessing to his belief in Christmas. We may associate Christmas with being home, but the Christmas story is really about being away from home and those who have no home. Joseph and Mary travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem. The Magi travel from the East to Bethlehem. Shepherds moved constantly with their sheep and goats seeking water. After Jesus is born, the Holy Family become refugees themselves, fleeing to Egypt for safety. I gather with friends and family at home to celebrate Christmas, but to witness to Christmas is to reach out and serve refugees, immigrants, and the homeless.

I don't have to travel to Greece to encounter refugees and find out how I can help. Refugees from Afghanistan and elsewhere are arriving here in Puget Sound. I wish others peace at Christmas, and Francis gives us a path to that peace in Fratelli Tutti: "We can aspire to a world that provides land, housing, and work for all. This is the true path of peace." (No. 127) It starts no further than the place we celebrate Christmas: We can work on a small scale, in our own neighborhood, but with a larger perspective. We constantly have to broaden our horizons and see the greater good which will benefit us all." (No. 145)

When I read his writings, I ask, "What does he ask me to do?" When I watch or read about his witness, I ask myself, "What does he inspire me to do?"

Join our Refugee Welcome Team!

Support a newly arrived refugee family by helping out with household supplies, clothing, helping the family learn about their new community, assisting with transportation, tutoring English, etc.. But most of all build a lasting circle of friendship. Contact Erica de Klerk, Refugee Welcome Coordinator, at edeklerk@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4511

On average 132 Americans die by suicide every day

How can I Make A Difference?

▲safeTALK

Thursday January 13
8:30 am – 12:30 pm

St. James Cathedral
Pastoral Outreach Center, 907 Columbia Street

Most people who express behaviors, feelings and thoughts of suicide don't truly want to die, but are struggling with the pain in their lives. SafeTALK-trained helpers can recognize expressions of those seeking help and act by connecting them with life-saving resources.

Training is appropriate for anyone 15 and over.

$25 Registration Fee for materials * Scholarships available
Register Early. Due to Covid restrictions, space is limited
Info / Registration: David Pina at savinglives2005@gmail.com

Covid protocols enforced / Individually wrapped refreshments provided

Grief Support Group

Tuesdays, January 25—March 15, 2022
6:30pm-8:00pm, on ZOOM

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join this 8-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff Nancy Granger and former group member Kevin O'Keefe

Information and registration, Nancy Granger, 206-382-4269 or ngranger@stjames-cathedral.org Space is limited; please register early
