Mr. Adam Neiman is delighted to be in Seattle performing Chopin Etudes Op. 10 and 25; a collection of twenty-four short, technically brilliant, contrasting compositions which span a vast range of emotions from intense sadness to unbridled joy.

This collection includes the famous Etude Op. 10 No. 3 nicknamed the Tristesse or "Sadness," which Chopin himself described as one of the most beautiful he had ever written. In contrast, this collection also includes Etude Op. 25 No. 9 known playfully as the "Butterfly" etude. Experience these etudes with Adam when he will give a short talk on Chopin followed by a performance of select works and an audience Q&A.

Adam's journey toward becoming a concert pianist began at the tender age of five, at his mother's tutelage. By age eight, young Adam gained momentum with a succession of regional and national competition triumphs, recital and concerto appearances across the United States, and by his early teens, successful forays onto the international concert and competition circuit. As a 17-year-old undergraduate piano major at the Juilliard School, Adam won three of America's most prestigious classical music awards: an Avery Fisher Career Grant, Gilmore Young Artist Award, and the Young Concert Artists International Auditions. In the same year, Neiman was nominated for a Grammy Award, all before graduating from the Juilliard School with highest honors. Neiman has gone on to become one of the most sought-after soloists and chamber musicians of his time.
