PROFESSION OF FAITH During Easter Time, we pray the Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
[ALL BOW]
who was conceived by the Holy Spirity
born of the Virgin Mary,
[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended in to heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese.

The Third Sunday of Easter

May 1, 2022

FOR YOUR SAFETY At each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer or uniformed security guard is present on the Cathedral campus.

ON THE COVER Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you. Peter and John hasten to the tomb. Detail of south transept stained-glass window, St. James Cathedral. Charles Connick, artist.

SUNDAY HOSPITALITY Please come to Cathedral Hall after the 10:00am Mass this morning for coffee, doughnuts (the gift of Krispy Kreme!), fruit, and a chance to enjoy the company of your fellow parishioners. After a two-year hiatus, it is wonderful to be able to share this simple fellowship again.

SURVIVORS OF SUICIDE: A JOURNEY OF FAITH, HOPE AND HEALING Archdiocese of Seattle's Mental Health Ministry presents a panel discussion with family members, trauma specialists, and faith and ministry leaders on the impact of suicide on loved ones and the Church's role in offering support. Wednesday, May 11, 2022, 12pm-2pm, on Zoom. Register for this free event: <https://archseattle.org/ministries/outreach-ministries/mental-health-ministry/mental-health-ministry-networking-luncheon-registration/>

ALL CATHEDRAL READS BOOK CLUB Recently, our parish Sponsor Circle Team welcomed two refugee families from Afghanistan. Under the direction of the St. James Immigrant Assistance Program, we helped these families integrate into American culture, find the resources they and their children need, and provide English language tutoring. To help welcome these families, and better understand their experience, the Immigrant Assistance Program is sponsoring an "All Cathedral Reads" book club about Afghanistan entitled The Sewing Circles of Herat by Christina Lamb. The book chronicles the courage and ingenuity of the Afghan people during the first rule of the Taliban in the early 2000s. The book is readily available, and there will also be some copies in the Cathedral bookstore. Parishioners will be invited to participate in a discussion of the book May 24 at 6:30pm on Zoom. Registration, ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Catherine in Seattle and St. Catherine Mission in Cathlamet and Concrete, St. Joseph the Worker Mission in Yacolt.

THERE ARE JUST TWO REMAINING OPPORTUNITIES TO BE A PART OF THE HISTORIC SYNOD

- “I didn’t plan on sharing my story at first, but the others were so honest and heartfelt that I really was given the courage by being in this group. It was so powerful.”
- “I am hopeful about this process. I think the Holy Spirit can do more than we ever imagined. We can be cynical, but this is different, this is a new moment.”
- “Painful/powerful/wonderful. The Holy Spirit is alive and well.”

Every member of the Cathedral community is invited to participate in the worldwide Synodal process initiated by Pope Francis. “Every encounter—as we know—calls for openness, courage and a willingness to let ourselves be challenged by the presence and the stories of others.... the experience of encounter changes us; frequently it opens up new and unexpected possibilities” (Pope Francis). Sign up online to attend ONE gathering, and share your dream for the Church:

ST VINCENT DE PAUL VISITS A NEIGHBOR LIVING

WITH ILLNESS: A middle-aged woman made multiple life-style changes after being diagnosed with stage 3 liver disease. Motivated by love for her son who is now in his teenage years, she has outlived the initial prognosis given to her by six years. She attempts to get work to supplement her disability income, but finds it challenging to find a job compatible with limitations caused by her illness. Needing help for one month’s rent, she called the SVdP Helpline requesting assistance (206-767-6449). With your help, we were able to pay enough of her rent to give her relief. Thank you! Information, Jo Ann Wiesner, 206-291-4012 or wiesnerjo@gmail.com.

Annual Catholic Appeal

TOGETHER WE CAN be Christ to Others

What is the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA)?

The ACA is an annual campaign of the Archdiocese of Seattle to support the programs and ministries serving our brothers and sisters throughout Western Washington, from Vancouver to Blaine, Forks to Snoqualmie.

Is it important to give to the ACA even though I already give to my parish?

God graces each one of us with gifts, talents and abilities that are to be shared responsibly and gratefully with others. Faithful stewardship goes beyond our weekly commitment to our parish. What one parish cannot do alone, we can do together. Your gift to the ACA recognizes that we belong to this local family of God, made up of the parishes and ministries of Western Washington.

How does the ACA support my parish?

The ACA provides specialized services for your pastor and parish staff, such as pastoral education and resources, property and construction services, human resources, financial services and more.

"Mission is not what we have.
It is who we are.
We are the body of Christ."

—ARCHBISHOP PAUL D. ETIENNE

Please prayerfully consider making a gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal, which supports 174 parishes and missions, as well as the local programs and ministries of the Archdiocese of Seattle. TOGETHER WE CAN help others encounter the Risen Christ.

There are many ways to make a gift or pledge:

- Give online at archseattle.org/GiveACA
- Scan the QR code to make your gift
- Make your gift by phone at 800-809-4921

As Catholics we are called by our baptism to be missionary disciples, to "go into the world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature." MARK 16:15

Grief Support Group

Tuesdays, May 24—July 12, 2022
6:30pm-8:00pm, on ZOOM

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join this 8-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff Nancy Granger and parishioner Kevin O'Keefe

Contemplative Prayer with music from Taizé

Friday, May 6, 2022
6:30pm

St. James Cathedral

Living God, at times we are strangers on the earth, disconcerted by the violence, the harsh oppositions. Transfigure the deserts of our doubts and so prepare us to be bearers of reconciliation wherever you place us, until a hope of peace arises in our world.

Brother Alois of Taizé

On the first Friday of each month, all are welcome to a contemplative prayer in the Cathedral, with song, silence, and candlelight. The service includes the meditative chants of the ecumenical Taizé community in France, founded by Brother Roger Schutz as a sign of reconciliation after World War II.

Peter Phillips, director

With over four decades of performance and a catalogue of award-winning recordings for Gimell, Peter Phillips and The Tallis Scholars have done more than any other group to establish sacred vocal music of the Renaissance as one of the great repertoires of Western classical music.

They have sought to bring Renaissance works to a wider audience in churches, cathedrals and venues on every continent on the planet except Antarctica! These include the Royal Albert Hall, the Sistine Chapel, the Lincoln Center and Carnegie Hall New York, the Philharmonic Hall Berlin, Saint Mark's Venice, Seoul Arts Centre Korea, Shakespeare's Globe Theatre London, Concertgebouw Amsterdam, Wigmore Hall, Beijing Concert Hall, Megaron Athens, and the Opera House Sydney. Presented by Cappella Romana, they return to Seattle and St. James Cathedral to sing Tomás Luis de Victoria's *Requiem.

Tuesday, May 3 at 7:30 PM

Tickets are $40–$80 and are available through the Cappella Romana website at cappellaromana.org or 503-256-8202. A limited number of pay-what-you-can parishioner passes are available at the Cathedral Parish Office reception desk or through the Cathedral music office: musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4874.

HEALTH AND SAFETY: Cappella Romana/Tallis Scholars requires that all singers are fully vaccinated and are tested during the performance period. All audience members must show proof of full vaccination or a validated negative COVID test prior to entry. At present masks are still required. Thank you for doing your part to keep everyone safe as possible.

Doors open at 7:00pm. The Cabrini Garage will remain open until 10:30pm for paid parking. Limited free parking is available in the O'Dea High School lot.
