ENTRANCE OF THE NEWLY BAPTIZED

EXPLANATORY RITES

CREED (except at 10:00am)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese.

The 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time January 15, 2023

ON THE COVER Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. Tympanum of the Ceremonial Bronze Doors, St. James Cathedral. Ulrich Henn, artist.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered in loving memory of Mairead Corrigan.

HOSPITALITY AFTER SUNDAY 10:00AM MASS Join us in Cathedral Hall for morning glory muffins from Macrina Bakery, fresh fruit, and the chance to visit with fellow parishioners.

FIESTA AFTER SUNDAY NOON MASS Join us after the Santo Niño celebration for a Filipino feast in Cathedral Hall. The delicious food is a gift from your fellow parishioners. All are welcome!

PARISH OFFICE CLOSED The parish office will be closed on Monday, January 16 for the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday. The Cathedral will be open until 4:00pm, with Masses at 8:00am and 12:10pm, and the Cathedral Kitchen will be open and will serve dinner as usual.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL COLLECTION This is the Third Sunday of the Month! As you leave the Cathedral, the ushers will be at the doors to receive any offering you are able to make in support of our St. Vincent de Paul Society outreach to the poor and needy in our downtown neighborhood. Your support makes a tremendous difference! Thank you.

A BYZANTINE EMPEROR AT KING HENRY'S COURT: CHRISTMAS 1400 LONDON Friday, January 20, 2023 at 7:30pm, Cappella Romana in concert. At Christmastide 1400 to 1401, Eastern Roman (Byzantine) Emperor Manuel II Palaiologos paid a visit to King Henry IV at Eltham Palace in London. Seeking aid against the Ottomans, the Byzantine Emperor also brought with him clergy and cantors for prayers and services. New discoveries reveal the mix of liturgical music – in Greek and in Latin – that was performed at this double-royal occasion on Old-Style Christmas (modern date of 7 January). Information and tickets, cappellaromana.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Paul in Seattle and on the Swinomish Reservation, and the Mission Church of St. Paul in Westport.

JOIN VIRTUALLY IN THE PARISH PILGRIMAGE TO THE HOLY LAND On January 22, a group of 116 pilgrims will join Father Ryan on an 8-day pilgrimage to the Holy Land. You are invited to join virtually in this journey by submitting your prayer requests via the parish website. Your intentions will be remembered at Mass each day of the pilgrimage. Photos, videos, and reflections will be posted daily on Instagram and Facebook. Visit www.stjames-cathedral.org/holyland to submit your intention, read about the itinerary, and download the prayer book. Information, Maria Laughlin, mlaughter@stjames-cathedral.org.

YOUNG ADULTS If you're looking for community and to grow deeper in your devotion to Jesus Christ, you're invited to join our weekly Young Adult Gathering! We meet every Sunday at the Pastoral Outreach Center from 6:30-8:00pm immediately following the 5:30pm Mass. A simple supper and drinks will be provided, and parking is available at O'Dea. Information, Andrew Braley, abraley@stjamescathedral.org or text 206-330-1512.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU A young couple with an infant needed help to pay rent when there was a change of employment and lapse of income. They called the St Vincent de Paul Helpline requesting assistance (206-767-6449). When we visited, a large fan in their apartment was helping to remove smoke from a fire that had occurred in the upper floors of their building. They proudly showed us their beautiful baby. With your support we were able to give them enough money to pay rent for a month. Recently we discovered these neighbors had moved into new family housing. Information, Jo Ann Wiesner, 206-291-4012 or wiesnerjo@gmail.com.

ADULT CONFIRMATION Are you or is someone you know 17 or older and in need of the Sacrament of Confirmation? The sacrament will be celebrated on Thursday, May 11 at 7:00pm. Classes in preparation for Confirmation begin on Tuesday, February 28. Catholic Baptism and First Communion are required. The deadline for registration is February 21. Information and registration, John Marquez, 206-654-4640 or jmarquez@stjames-cathedral.org.

BECOMING A US CITIZEN HAS LIFE CHANGING BENEFITS Having found safety in a domestic violence shelter, Reina (not her real name) and her children began the difficult journey of rebuilding independence and stability. Though they were physically safe, Reina's ex-spouse continued to find ways to make stability hard to obtain. One attempt to harm Reina was through the immigration process. Through Immigrant Assistance's legal services, Reina was able to overcome her ex-husband's attempts to prevent her from becoming a US citizen. Having obtained US citizenship, she now has the peace of mind that her ex-husband can no longer threaten her ability to remain safely in the US with her children. We are able to provide these life changing services at no cost. If you or someone you know is interested in becoming a US Citizen, we can help. Information, Patrick Suhrbier psuhrbier@stjames-cathedral.org or Laura Murton lmurton@stjames-cathedral.org, 206-382-4511.

FAITH FRIENDS INCLUSION MINISTRY Faith Friends is an inclusion ministry serving children and teens from across the Archdiocese of Seattle. We are a unique blend of our Faith Mentor and Children's Faith Formation program, and provide Sacramental Preparation, as well as opportunities for friendship with other youth. Information, Jennifer Wong, 206-619-0816, faithfriends@stjames-cathedral.org, or www.faithfriendsstjames.org.

TEEN, YOUNG ADULT AND ADULT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR FAITH FRIENDS MINISTRY Faith Friends is a unique blend of our Faith Mentor, children's faith formation program, and an inclusion ministry. The ministry's goal is to give children and teens ages 7- 18 with physical, cognitive and/or intellectual disabilities access to the parish community, social events, and faith formation. Faith Peers are teens and young adults who have chosen to live out their discipleship and share some of their personal time in dedication and service to the goals of the program. Adult volunteers are needed for the Adult Leadership team. Information, Jennifer Wong, 206-619-0816, faithfriends@stjames-cathedral.org, or www.faithfriendsstjames.org.

SAVE THE DATE: CHOIR CAMP 2023 All children and youth with unchanged (treble) voices entering grades 1 through 8 are encouraged to register for Choir Camp! All are welcome: parishioners and non-parishioners alike. Camp occurs daily August 7-11, Monday through Friday, 9:00am until 4:00pm. Camp concludes with all choristers returning at 9:00am on August 13 to sing for the 10:00am Sunday Mass. Contact the Youth Music Office to register today! Information, Youth Music Office, 206-382-4876 or youthmusic@stjames-cathedral.org.

CARE FOR CREATION TIP OF THE WEEK The Washington State Legislature's 2013 session began this week. Now would be the most opportune time to ask your elected representatives to support legislation that limits carbon pollution, protects natural resources, supports international efforts to fight climate change, protects environmental health, or promotes energy efficiency and renewable energy. (WA is doing great in this action under a climate- focused Governor Jay Inslee)

SOCIAL OUTREACH AND ADVOCACY STAFF TRANSITIONS The last week has seen a couple of staffing changes for St. James Social Outreach and Advocacy. On Friday, January 6, we said farewell to Maria Tally, who had served as Assistant Director of the Cathedral Kitchen. We will certainly miss seeing Maria's spirit every day, but she will still be a part of the Kitchen team as a volunteer. Many of you also are aware that Nancy Granger, who had served as the Cathedral's Mental Health and Wellness Nurse, retired in October. This past week, we welcomed Nancy's successor, Anisa Ralls, to the Cathedral's pastoral team. Anisa comes to us after many years as the emergency room social worker at Evergreen Hospital in Kirkland. Welcome to St. James Cathedral, Anisa!

Santo Niño—Holy Child

*In every need let us come to you with humble trust:
In all our doubts, perplexities, and temptations,
In disappointments, troubles, and sorrows,
When others fail us, when our heart is cast down
by failure, when we are ill,
and our head and hands cannot work,
when we are lonely, when we feel impatient,
and our cross irritates us,
Always, always, in spite of weakness, falls,
and shortcomings of every kind,
Santo Niño, help us!*
Prayer to the Holy Child Jesus

In the Philippines, devotion to the infant Christ extends beyond the Christmas season, with the celebration of the Santo Niño, the Holy Child, during the month of January. In the Philippines, devotion to the Santo Niño is more than a traditional devotion — it is deeply rooted in the history and culture of the islands.

The story of the Santo Niño in the Philippines begins on the island of Cebu. Queen Juana of Cebu resisted the efforts of Spanish missionaries to convert her. But when they presented her with a gift of a statue of the Child Jesus, her heart was touched. This image of a vulnerable God — a child and yet a king, strength in weakness — did what all their words could not. Moved to tears by their gift, Juana asked for baptism.

But not all the native peoples accepted the rule and religion of the invaders. In 1521, King Lapu-Lapu of Mactan challenged the invaders in battle, and Ferdinand Magellan was killed. Without his leadership, the Spaniards soon lost their grip on the islands. The native peoples proceeded to destroy all signs of the invaders and their faith, including (it was thought) the image of the Child Jesus that had been given to Queen Juana.

More than 40 years later, the Spaniard Legazpi led a new expedition to the Philippines. They found the town of Cebu nearly destroyed by fire. But amid the ruins, they discovered a wooden box. Inside it lay Queen Juana's statue of the Child Jesus, miraculously intact. Spaniards and natives alike took this as a sign. They built the first Catholic Church in the Philippines on the spot where the image was discovered, and dedicated it to the Santo Niño, the Holy Child. From that time on, the finding of the image has been celebrated in the Philippines with a great annual festival in the month of January, including a solemn liturgy, and dancing and feasting as well.

Cathedral servers gather with the image of the Santo Niño—
Holy Child at the celebration in 2008.

It was at one of the first such celebrations, in 1567, that the first mixed-race marriage in the Philippines took place, when a niece of the native king married a Greek carpenter, a member of Legazpi's crew. This marriage — which held profound political significance for the islands, and ushered in a new era of friendship between the races — is reenacted each year as part of the Santo Niño celebration in Cebu City. The celebration of the Santo Niño thus becomes an ongoing prayer for tolerance and understanding among peoples.

While the Santo Niño de Cebu — characteristically garbed in red and gold — is the most popular image of the Child Jesus in the Philippines, there are many others, including Santo Niño de Tondo, Santo Niño de Padacan, as well as the Infant of Prague. In fact, about 150 different images of the Child Jesus, each with its own history and associated traditions, are venerated in the Philippines. Though the images are many, there is one Christ, who came among us to bring the light and love of God to people of race, nation, and tongue. May our celebration of the Santo Niño bring us to greater oneness in the Christ, who calls all of us to become as little children, and so enter the kingdom of God.

LIGHT

Contemplative Prayer
with music from Taizé

Friday, February 3, 2023
6:30pm

St. James Cathedral

*Jesus our peace,
by the Holy Spirit
you always come to us.
And in the deepest part of our soul,
there is the wonder of a presence.
Our prayer may be quite poor,
but you pray within us.*

Brother Alois of Taizé

On the first Friday of each month, all are welcome to a contemplative prayer in the Cathedral, with song, silence, and candlelight. The service includes the meditative chants of the ecumenical Taizé community in France, founded by Brother Roger Schutz as a sign of reconciliation after World War II.
