Festival of St. James

We will observe the feast of St. James the Greater, patron of our parish family and of the Archdiocese of Seattle, on the weekend of July 25-26. This year, we honor our great patron with a week of prayer and special events.

Monday, July 20-Saturday, July 25
A special prayer to St. James is said at the end of all weekday Masses in the Cathedral

Tuesday, July 21: CONCERT
St. James Cathedral's Assistant Director of Music and Organist Christopher Stroh presents a diverse sampling of American composers, both U. S.-born and naturalized, on the awesome Rosales and Hutchings-Votey organs. Music by Samuel Barber, Mary Elizabeth Downey, Jessica French, Larry Peyton King, Undine Smith Moore, George Shearing, and Pietro Yon. The concert begins at 7:00pm and is followed by a reception in the courtyard on the south side of the Cathedral, where you can greet the artist and enjoy a complimentary cold summertime treat. Suggested donation: $22 general, $14 students and seniors or pay as able.

Thursday, July 23: CAMINO
All are invited to join in a pilgrimage beginning at 6:30pm at either Immaculate Conception or Christ Our Hope, and ending at St. James Cathedral, where we'll share a Spanish meal (and music!). The walk is about a mile from each starting point. If you are unable to walk, you can still join in the meal at 7:15pm. RSVP required. Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or mlaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

Saturday, July 25-Sunday, July 26
FEAST OF ST. JAMES AND PARISH PICNIC
We mark our patronal solemnity at all Masses this weekend: Saturday 5:30pm, Sunday 8:00am, 10:00am, Noon, and 5:30pm, with Vespers and Benediction at 4:00pm. The Cathedral Choir of St. James will sing at the 10:00am and 12 Noon Masses, and the parish picnic takes place on Terry Avenue from 11:00am-3:00pm.

JAMES OF GALILEE* WITH CATHEDRAL YOUTH
On July 26 at 9:50am in the Cathedral, shortly before the 10:00am Mass, the teens of our parish family, under the leadership of Youth and Young Adult Minister Blake Steller, will present a play telling the story of St. James. Come early and enjoy this brief performance in the Cathedral!
