WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese.

Divine Mercy Sunday April 24, 2022

FOR YOUR SAFETY At each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer or uniformed security guard is present on the Cathedral campus.

ON THE COVER Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Icon of the Resurrection of the Lord. Joan Brand-Landkamer, Cathedral Iconographer.

SUNDAY HOSPITALITY RETURNS AFTER 10:00AM MASS TODAY Please come to Cathedral Hall after the 10:00am Mass this morning for coffee, doughnuts (the gift of Krispy Kreme!), fruit, and a chance to enjoy the company of your fellow parishioners. After a two-year hiatus, it will be great to be able to share this simple fellowship again.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL COLLECTION Because of Easter last Sunday, we were unable to take up our regular Third Sunday St. Vincent de Paul Society collection. We will do so following all the Masses this weekend. At the 10:00am Mass on April 24, your offerings will be received by our own Vincentians.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL HELPS A NEIGHBOR CATCH UP

A middle-age man working in a health administration job had his hours cut to part-time. In addition to his diminished income, he lost a roommate and experienced health issues. Despite moving to a less expensive apartment in the same building, he found it difficult to get on top of his rent obligation. The man called the St Vincent de Paul Helpline requesting assistance (206-767-6449). With your help we were able to pledge assistance toward his rent and referred him to another resource which was able to pay a significant portion of his back rent. The man now has hope to catch up with his finances and is looking for a full-time job. Information, Jo Ann Wiesner, 206-291-4012 or wiesnerjo@gmail.com.

FLORAL OFFERINGS ARE A WONDERFUL WAY to remember a deceased loved one, celebrate an anniversary, or give thanks for a prayer that has been answered. Weekends open for floral offerings include July 10 and July 31. Information, Maggie Corrigan, mcorrigan@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-622-3559.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Mark in Shoreline, Our Lady of Good Help in Hoquiam, and Our Lady of Good Counsel Mission in Eatonville.

FAITH FRIENDS INCLUSION MINISTRY Do you know a child or teen age 7-18 with physical, cognitive and/or intellectual disabilities? Faith Friends is an inclusion ministry serving children and teens from across the Archdiocese of Seattle. We are a unique blend of our Faith Mentor and Children's Faith Formation program, and provide Sacramental Preparation, as well opportunities for friendship with other youth. Information, faithfriends@stjames-cathedral.org or stjames-faithfriends.weebly.com.

IMMIGRANT ASSISTANCE SEEKING TUTORS Would you like to help an immigrant/refugee learn English or help prepare for their citizenship interview? The time commitment is 1-2 hours a week for a minimum of 6 months. Pre-service training is provided. Information, Sayuko Setvik, 206-382-4511 or ssetvik@stjames-cathedral.org.

YOUTH V. GOV In this climate change superhero movie, armed with a wealth of evidence, twenty-one courageous leaders file a ground-breaking lawsuit against the U.S. government, asserting it has willfully acted over six decades to create the climate crisis, thus endangering their constitutional rights to life, liberty, and property. Two screenings on Zoom will be on Monday, April 25, 5pm and Tuesday, April 26, 6:30pm. On Wednesday, April 27, 4:30pm, join a webinar conversation with the filmmaker and two young plaintiffs (who are people of faith) from the film. Registration, Patrick Barredo, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

ALL CATHEDRAL READS BOOK CLUB Recently, our parish Sponsor Circle Team welcomed two refugee families from Afghanistan. Under the direction of the St. James Immigrant Assistance Program, we helped these families integrate into American culture, find the resources they and their children need, and provide English language tutoring. To help welcome these families, and better understand their experience, the Immigrant Assistance Program is sponsoring an "All Cathedral Reads" book club about Afghanistan entitled The Sewing Circles of Herat by Christina Lamb. The book chronicles the courage and ingenuity of the Afghan people during the first rule of the Taliban in the early 2000s. The book is readily available, and there will also be some copies in the Cathedral bookstore. Parishioners will be invited to participate in a discussion of the book May 24 at 6:30pm on Zoom. Registration, Christopher Koehler, ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org.

THE CRS RICE BOWL THANKS YOU St. James Cathedral joined with many other Catholic parishes across the United States to change lives this Lent through CRS Rice Bowl, and we want to say THANK YOU! Through your past generosity, Guatemalans Lilian and her husband Raúl were trained in gardening techniques and received seed funds to start an agribusiness through CRS projects. Today they supply their produce to 16 schools and are able to hire around 15 people during harvest time. Supporting local farmers not only builds a strong school meal program and helps feed students, it bolsters local economies and communities. If you missed the Rice Bowl, you can donate online at crsricebowl.org/give.

THERE ARE STILL OPPORTUNITIES TO BE A PART OF THE HISTORIC SYNOD

- "I didn't plan on sharing my story at first, but the others were so honest and heartfelt that I really was given the courage by being in this group. It was so powerful."
- "I am hopeful about this process. I think the Holy Spirit can do more than we ever imagined. We can be cynical, but this is different, this is a new moment."
- "Painful/powerful/wonderful. The Holy Spirit is alive and well."

Every member of the Cathedral community is invited to participate in the worldwide Synodal process initiated by Pope Francis. "Every encounter—as we know—calls for openness, courage and a willingness to let ourselves be challenged by the presence and the stories of others.... the experience of encounter changes us; frequently it opens up new and unexpected possibilities" (Pope Francis). Sign up online to attend ONE gathering, and share your dream for the Church:

Afghanistan: Then and Now

The St. James Cathedral Sponsor Circle Team has welcomed two recently-arrived Afghan families, living out our call to welcome the stranger. Team members have helped with shopping, moving, enrolling in health care, connecting to a local mosque, airport arrivals, interpretation, finding jobs, and more.

More than 70,000 Afghans were evacuated and brought to the U.S. over the past six months. Some of those who have come to the Seattle area have been welcomed by Sponsor Circles like ours, others by refugee resettlement agencies, and others have come on their own. They join an existing local and vibrant Afghan community.

To learn more about how these families came to be here, and the work of the Sponsor Circle, St. James Cathedral's Immigrant Assistance and Racial Solidarity Team are co-sponsoring an event that will feature a panel discussion on Afghanistan – its history and culture, the current situation in that war-torn country, and a look at the issues facing Afghan refugees as they resettle in our country. Speakers include:

Professor Farid Saydee, Ph.D. – Kean University, Afghan refugee and founder of Language Mentors International

Mr. Karimi – Afghan immigrant, currently studying for his citizenship with help from an Immigrant Assistance tutor

Brian Beattie – St. James parishioner and currently a member of the St. James Sponsor Circle Team

Sarah Riggio – St. James parishioner and Sponsor Circle Team member, whose family has hosted refugees

Wednesday, April 27, from 6:00 – 7:00pm

This presentation will be on Zoom

Contemplative Prayer with music from Taizé

Friday, May 6, 2022

6:30pm

St. James Cathedral

Living God, at times we are strangers on the earth, disconcerted by the violence, the harsh oppositions. Transfigure the deserts of our doubts and so prepare us to be bearers of reconciliation wherever you place us, until a hope of peace arises in our world.

Brother Alois of Taizé

On the first Friday of each month, all are welcome to a contemplative prayer in the Cathedral, with song, silence, and candlelight. The service includes the meditative chants of the ecumenical Taizé community in France, founded by Brother Roger Schutz as a sign of reconciliation after World War II.
