EPIPHANY PROCLAMATION

In keeping with an ancient custom in the Church, the dates of Easter and other moveable feasts of the liturgical year are announced in traditional chant.

CREED CHANTED ON ONE TONE

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL St. James Mass of Carols

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR AND THE GIFTS

Offertory (10:00) The Three Kings
Healy Willan (1880–1868)

"Who knocks tonight so late?"
the weary porter said.
Three kings stood at the gate,
each with a crown on head.

The serving man bowed down,
the Inn was full, he knew.
Said he, "In all this town
is no fit place for you."

A light in the manger lit;
there lay the Mother meek.
This place is fit.
Here is the rest we seek.

Come, come. They loosed their latchet strings,
so stood they all unshod
"Come in, come in, ye kings,
and kiss the feet of God."

Laurence Housman (1865–1965)

(Noon & Sunday Evening) Brightest and best of the stars of the morning
Malcom Archer (b. 1952)

PROCESSION OF GIFTS Please follow the directions of the ushers and come forward to the altar with your offering. If you give online, you are still encouraged to participate in the procession! Use one of the white envelopes in the pews and simply drop it in the basket.

SANCTUS St. James Mass of Carols

heaven and earth are full of your glory.

A MESSAGE OF PEACE "At the dawn of this New Year given to us by our heavenly Father, a year of Jubilee in the spirit of hope, I offer heartfelt good wishes of peace to every man and woman. I think especially of those who feel downtrodden, burdened by their past mistakes, oppressed by the judgment of others and incapable of perceiving even a glimmer of hope for their own lives. Upon everyone I invoke hope and peace, for this is a Year of Grace born of the Heart of the Redeemer!"—The opening of Pope Francis' message for the World Day of Peace on January 1. Full message, https://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/messages/peace.html

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL'S FAITH FRIENDS The program's goal is to give children and teens ages 7-17 with learning differences , physical, cognitive and/or intellectual disabilities access to parish community, social events and faith formation. Perhaps the most unique aspect of the Faith Friends program is the Faith Mentor/Faith Peer program. Faith Mentors are youth and Faith Peers are young adults who have chosen to live out their discipleship and share some of their personal time in dedication and service to the goals of the program. After completing an intake process and training, these Faith Mentors volunteer at various monthly Faith Friend meetings and other group activities Faith Peers can also serve as a Faith Mentor by being paired with a Faith Friend.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU Two years ago, this young man moved to Seattle for a training program in technology. He has had trouble finding work in this field and worked in restaurants until injuring his leg at the gym. His healing process had been slow and frustrating as he has no car to get around. He has found a foodbank that delivers and is applying for remote work. Thanks to your generosity, the SVdP ministry was able to help with a portion of his rent. Those in need of assistance can call the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449 or apply online https://svdpseattle.org/get-help/online-help-request-form/) Information, Blake Steller, 907-244-6683 or blsteller@gmail.com.

REST IN PEACE Please pray for the repose of the soul of Helen Goehring. May her soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

CATHEDRAL BOOK CLUB

The Road to Wisdom

Tuesday, January 21, 2025

7:00 pm | Holy Names Room

Pastoral Outreach Center (907 Columbia St.)

In January, our book club title is The Road To Wisdom: On Truth, Science, Faith, and Trust by Francis S. Collins, "a deeply thoughtful guidebook to get us beyond societal divisions and back to the sources of wisdom."

Collins, a physician and geneticist, is also the author of The Language of God, former director of the International Human Genome Project, and former director of the National Institutes of Health.

Copies are available wherever you get your books!

Thoughtful, accessible, winsome, and deeply wise. A moral, philosophical, and scientific framework with which to address the problems of our time – distrust of public health, partisanship, racism, climate change, and threats to our democracy...and also guide us in our daily lives.

"important and timely...listening, understanding, and tolerance are the essential threads that weave their way throughout The Road To Wisdom. A book to learn from."—Kay Renfield Jamison

"An inspirational and unflinching look at Francis Collins' life as a research scientist, a man of faith, and a servant-leader."—Yo-Yo Ma

"Amid the shrillness of our era, Dr. Collins offers a calming voice of hope as well as practical suggestions on how to heal the nation's wounds."—Philip Yancey

There is no registration requirement, but please contact Joyce Mork-O'Brien at jamob14@comcast.net if you plan to attend so that we can be sure to accommodate everyone.
