

Scott Fitzenreiter

Household Information

Gina, wife; Lives on Hilton Head Island; Certified Financial Planner

Relevant Education/Experience

BA History, Univ of MD; Certified Financial Planner, CFP Board of Standards; Certified Investment Management Analyst, Wharton School of Business Executive Program. 31 years as a financial advisor working with individuals and institutions non-profit clients. 9 years active duty as a military officer with multiple leadership, staff and command positions.

Your current/prior church involvement

Constitution and By-Laws Committee Member

Call Committee Member

Discipleship Hour Participant

Holy Cross Lutheran Church—elder, lector, financial steward, executive steering committee, vice president, confirmation instructor; mowed the church lawn for three years.

What specific skills would you bring to the Leadership Ministry Board?

Prayerfully evaluate the matters being considered by the congregation and the LMB. Listen more than I speak. Use a calm, collective approach to formulating an opinion. Lead when my leadership skills appear most relevant and follow when I should follow. I have over 3 decades of experience advising and consulting nonprofit boards in financial matters and governance. I am comfortable in listening to all sides and formulating an opinion.

Why do you desire to hold a position on the Leadership Ministry Board?

I believe in the mission and vision of ILC and believe I have some skills and experience that I can contribute. I understand that varying skill sets can make the group better. I believe that my background and skill set can contribute to the LMB. If I am not the right fit now, I am willing to help out as I am able.

“Knowing and Sharing the Joy of Salvation through Jesus Christ”