

Field Days at the Williston Research Extension Center and the MonDak Ag Showcase happening July 10 and 11

The annual dryland agronomy and horticulture field day will be held Wednesday, July 10 at the North Dakota State University Williston Research Extension Center 4.5 miles west of Williston on U.S. Highway 2.

The event begins with registration at 3:00 p.m. CST.

The dryland crops tour starts at 3:45 p.m. NDSU Research and Extension Specialists will highlight their work. Topics include soil acidification, causes, and management options; foundation seed increase program; UAV demonstration; dryland soybean management; pipeline reclamation project; plant pathology; and weed management.

A concurrent horticulture program starts at 3:45 p.m. in the Ernie French Center for those interested in flowers, gardening, and fruit production. Topics include how to make gardening less work; trendy and healthy house plants; and WREC horticulture research update.

A free steak and lamb dinner will follow the tour at 7:00 p.m. The dinner is sponsored by area businesses.

The Irrigation Field Day will be held on Thursday, July 11 at the NDSU Irrigated Nesson Research and Development Farm located 23 miles east of Williston on Hwy 1804. Refreshments will be served starting at 8:30 a.m. and the irrigated crop tour will begin at 9:00 a.m. with NDSU Research and Extension Specialists presenting highlights from experiments conducted at the Nesson Valley site; WREC irrigation research and information on variety trials conducted under irrigation; soil structure and why it is important; intercropping comparisons for irrigated production; weed management; chemical and chemical injury on crops; hightunnel research; and USDA research update.

The Irrigated Field Day will conclude with a noon luncheon sponsored by area businesses.

For more information or questions, please call 701-774-4315.

Individuals with disabilities are invited to request reasonable accommodations to participate in NDSU-sponsored programs and events. To request an accommodation(s), please contact WREC at 701-774-4315 by July 1, 2019 to make arrangements.