RE: Press Release: Western Cooperative Credit Union donation to XWA Children's Play Area

Comments:

Western Cooperative Credit Union is pleased to announce the Board of Director's decision to donate $5,000.00 to the newest airport in Western North Dakota, XWA in Williston, ND. This donation is dedicated to the continued development of the Children's Play Area, which will include special features of Western North Dakota wildlife and indoor play equipment. This play area will help families from around the region with a place for children to play while waiting for their flights. Western Cooperative Credit Union is dedicated to our communities and members.

Featured in the photo are WCCU President/CEO Melanie Stillwell, XWA Airport Director Anthony Dudas, and Williston City Commissioner Deanette Piesik.
