33rd Annual Sport & Recreation Show Scheduled for March 16-18

Williston, N.D. - The 32nd Annual Sport & Recreation Show will be held at the Raymond Family Community Center March 16-18, 2018. The show is produced by the Williston Convention & Visitors Bureau (CVB) each year as a fundraiser, with proceeds benefiting the Williston Police Department, community events and event equipment for Williston.

"We have some great returning vendors who join us every year," commented Event Communications Coordinator Sabrina Ramey, "and then we have many new vendors. We have really strived to build the type of Sport & Rec show that the Williston community has asked us for: a fun family event and a resource for people who love the outdoors."

Attendees will continue to enjoy the low entry fee and see the newest models of boats, RVs, ATVs, grills, outdoor furniture, motorcycles and spas. Upstairs, there are over 30 vendor booths offering a wide variety of products including hunting trips, grills, dog training, fishing tackle, clay shooting, engine repair and much more. Show attendees will also enjoy feeding the butterflies upstairs all three days of the show, free and open to the public.

The Kid Zone will be open on Saturday and Sunday, featuring Archery Alley courtesy of the North Dakota Bow Hunters Association. Kids can also get their faces painted for free and learn about the lives of the Snake River Doodles miniature horses and goats, who serve as therapy animals at their home in Idaho. Concessions will be available for sale.
