Ms. Smallwood has over 10 years experience working with individuals with I/DD as a Direct Support Professional in the community and day program settings. She is experienced and comfortable with providing support with personal care and behavioral management needs.

Ms. Smallwood would love to become a Host Home provider because nothing is more important than family to her. She is an "empty nester" so this gives her a chance to utilize her experience and nurturing spirit to enhance the independence and quality of life for the right individual.

The Smallwood home is an unlicensed Host Home located in a quiet apartment complex conveniently close to community stores, restaurants and more.
