With equity and access at the heart of its mission, the DC Collaborative advances arts and humanities education in partnership with its members.

Invest in equity by offering your programs to students who need them the most and committing to our DEI practice.

We accomplish more when we work together.

Collective Impact & Advocacy

Join one of the Collaborative's Any Give Child DC committees to lend your expertise and ensure that high quality experiential learning programs are being offered equitably to all DC students.

Stay connected to local and national collective impact stakeholders to shape the future of arts and humanities education in DC.

Reach Local Students

The Arts and Humanities for Every Student (AHFES) program works with about 180 schools and 50,000 students and teachers annually.

Expand your audience and capacity by allowing the DC Collaborative to assist with program marketing, outreach, registration, communication, and logistics.

Networking & Professional Development

Access a membership directory, job board, and community calendar through an online membership portal.

Receive and contribute to monthly community of practice newsletters.

Attend events, including membership convenings, curricular connection workshops, networking meetings, and professional development opportunities.
