

Mo Willems &
the Storytime All-Stars present

Don't Let the Pigeon Do Storytime!

Saturday, July 13, 2019

1:00pm and 6:00pm

Concert Hall, Age 5+

Join a Concert Hall Storytime like you've never experienced before, featuring your favorite performers from TV, movies, and stand-up. Presenting Mo Willems's books as sketch comedy, these hilarious performers invite the audience to laugh, sing, and draw along! This hysterical concert variety show is an expanded, fancy-dress version of sold-out performances at the 2018 San Francisco Sketchfest, and not to be missed by fans of comedy, books, or pigeons desperate to do Storytime!

Although these performances are nearly sold out to the public, we have held a limited number of FREE seats for our special DC partners. To be entered in a lottery for a chance to attend these performances, please fill out the following information and submit to sgdib@kennedy-center.org no later than Wednesday, June 19th, 2019. Names will be drawn and families will be notified by Wednesday, June 26th, 2019. If awarded tickets, you must make every effort to attend.

ADDITIONAL FILMING OPPORTUNITY

On Thursday, July 11th, 2019, we will be filming a video of elementary-aged students on a school bus pulling up to the Kennedy Center which will be captured for use in the television special. We are looking to "cast" around 45 elementary aged students and 5 adults to ride on the bus for this taping. Children are to be dressed in suits and dresses for this filming and should anticipate being called from 10:00am until 12:00pm on 7/11/19. All participants "cast" for this filming will receive tickets to the Saturday event.

☐ Yes, I would like my family to be considered for this opportunity.
