ABOUT THE NATIONAL CHERRY BLOSSOM FESTIVAL

The National Cherry Blossom Festival, one of the world's great celebrations of spring, deepens our connection to nature; enriches our communities; and honors our unique friendship with Japan by inspiring creative international exchange and collaboration. It commemorates the 1912 gift of over 3,000 cherry trees from Mayor Yukio Ozaki of Tokyo to the city of Washington, DC.

2017 CONTEST THEME

This year's youth art contest theme will explore kimonos, and how it is the pattern, rather than the cut of the garment, that is significant.

Students should create artwork that tells their "Springtime in DC" story -- what they look forward to when spring rolls around and the cherry blossoms are in bloom -- via symbols and icons, thinking of how to express their thoughts in the framework of a kimono pattern. Refer to the Resource Guide on page 3 for ideas.

ELIGIBILITY

Students in DC Public and Public Charter Schools, Grades K-12
Grade groupings for judging are as follows: K-2; 3-5; 6-8; and 9-12

GUIDELINES

All entries must adhere to the contest theme as described above.

- One entry per student. No more than ten entries per school.
- Group submissions are not eligible for the contest.
- All entries must include a completed Entry Form on the back of each artwork. Please note: Artwork submitted with an incomplete Entry Form will be disqualified.

Suggested Sizes for Artwork: 18"x24" heavy-weight paper (cover or card stock) or poster board

Maximum Size of Artwork: 22"x28" poster board

Additional Artistic Parameters:

- Materials and media that may be used in artwork include fabric, papers, glitter, markers, watercolors, crayons, colored pencils, acrylic paints, tissue paper, etc.
 - Recommendation: When working with pastels, please spray artwork so it does not smudge. Please limit the use of beads or other glued items that may easily fall off during transport.
- Secondary grades may use digital computer-generated art but MUST print and mount the artwork as specified above.
- Prepared lettering within the artwork is accepted but should be minimal.
- The theme does not have to be written or printed on the artwork.

2017 YOUTH ART CONTEST RESOURCE GUIDE

Thank you for your interest in the National Cherry Blossom Festival Youth Art Contest presented with the DC Arts & Humanities Education Collaborative. Prior to creating artwork, please review the 2017 guidelines, theme, and the resources below.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES RELATED TO THE CONTEST THEME

The following are resources and additional considerations when approaching how to guide your students in completing artwork for the contest:

- Framing: if you choose, artwork can take the literal shape of a kimono, which is a capital letter T with detailing. The size of the T could adhere to the suggested sizing for artwork submissions.
- Context: convey location as a backdrop to the story-telling of the students' art, and explore self-portraiture or drawing the human form with a kimono-clad entity as a focal point.
- Integrate Art & Literacy: in Japanese culture, art and poetry often go hand in hand. Many Japanese artworks include lines of poetry within the composition. Consider articulating "Springtime in DC" as a haiku or short phrase to complement the kimono-centric artwork.
- Links to articles & explanations of kimono symbols:
