ADVENT'S MINI-FOOD PANTRY continues to collect canned meat, packaged crackers, snacks, cookies, water for the Little Free Pantry and for the bags of food prepared by our young people for distribution. If you have a fob, place food donations inside the red door near the offices. If you do not have a fob, donations may be placed outside the red doors or contact Sharon Thrower (preschooldirector@adventlu.org). You may also go to this link to order directly from Amazon's wish list: https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/MNHZQ6F3AYHH?ref=wl_share. Because of delivery issues at the church, it has been set up for the items to be shipped to Sharon Thrower's address; however you MUST select the shipping option that says "Sharon Thrower's Gift Registry Address".

Habitat for Humanity's new alternative gift market at <https://www.habitat.org/donate/?link=628>. It is an online market where folks can buy donations in honor of a loved one and the gift recipient will receive a winter holiday card sharing the donation with them. You can purchase lumber for a family in need or other supplies for those working towards a home.

CRISIS ASSISTANCE MINISTRY -- Crisis Assistance Ministry always needs volunteers for their ministry's Free Store Production Area, located at 500-A Spratt Street. Help is needed in a variety of roles, from sorting and inspecting donated items; sizing and hanging clothing; to stocking the Free Store, which provides families in our community with essentials free-of-charge. HELP NEEDED TO SERVE MEALS -- Houses of faith in Charlotte have been asked to sign up for a weekly slot to serve meals to previously unsheltered residents who are now living in three hotels in Mecklenburg County. Food is provided by an outside contractor, and Roof Above is working with residents to find permanent housing. Time slots for meal service are two people for two hours for either lunch or dinner, and we would be making a commitment for one day a week now through September. If you are interested in participating in the meal service program, please contact Abby Bostian (abostian@carolina.rr.com) or Jim Hintz (hintzes3@aol.com). If enough people are interested, we'll make the commitment to help and contact you about schedules.
